Reform in Europe Liesbet Heyse, Sandra Resodihardjo, Tineke Lantink, Berber Lettinga (Eds), 2017-11-28 One of the most prevailing myths within the social sciences is the difficulty of achieving reform Governments are either unwilling to push for reform or if they are willing they are unable to do so This volume illustrates that reform can and does happen and therefore need not be mythologized Through carefully selected case studies the contributions to this volume illustrate reform in several policy sectors and countries to include the smoking bans in Ireland public housing in the Netherlands and asylum procedures in Germany Designed to enhance our understanding of the reform process this volume is highly suited to the fields of public administration and policy

Moloney, 2025-10-01 All people are equal according to Thomas Jefferson but all migrants are not This volume looks at how they are distinguished in France the United States Turkey Canada Mexico the Netherlands Sweden and Denmark made through history between migrants and how these were justified in policies and public debates The chapters form a triptych addressing in three clusters the problematization of questions such as who is a refugee who is family and what is difference The chapters in this volume show that these are not separate issues They intersect in ways that vary according to countries of origin and settlement economic climate geopolitical situation as well as by gender and by class ethnicity religion and sexual orientation of the migrants

Gender, Migration, and the Public Sphere, 1850-2005 Marlou Schrover, Eileen Yeo, 2011-01-13 Exploring theories of difference in labor market participation network formation and the immigrant organising process on belonging and diaspora and a theory of vulnerability A Global History of Gender and Migration looks critically at two centuries of the migration experience from the perspectives of women and men separately and together
