Critical Cinema 3 Interviews With Independent Filmmakers:

A Critical Cinema 3 Scott MacDonald, 1998 This sequel to A Critical Cinema offers a new collection of interviews with independent filmmakers that is a feast for film fans and film historians Scott MacDonald reveals the sophisticated thinking of these artists regarding film politics and contemporary gender issues The interviews explore the careers of Robert Breer Trinh T Minh ha James Benning Su Friedrich and Godfrey Reggio Yoko Ono discusses her cinematic collaboration with John Lennon Michael Snow talks about his music and films Anne Robertson describes her cinematic diaries Jonas Mekas and Bruce Baillie recall the New York and California avant garde film culture The selection has a particularly strong group of women filmmakers including Yvonne Rainer Laura Mulvey and Lizzie Borden Other notable artists are Anthony McCall Andrew Noren Ross McElwee Anne Severson and Peter Watkins The Garden in the Machine Scott MacDonald, 2001-12-18

This book is MacDonald's magnum opus it represents a deep immersion in and advocacy for independent experimental cinema Patricia R Zimmerman author of States of Emergency Documentaries Wars Democracies This is a brilliant study learned authoritative and often eloquent One reads this book with astonishment at the wealth of thoughtful and playful and provocative work that has occurred in this medium and astonishment too that most scholars of environmental literature and nature in the visual arts have had minimal contact with independent film and video MacDonald provides an immensely valuable readable overview of this field profoundly relevant to my own work and that of many other contemporary ecocritics Scott Slovic editor of ISLE Interdisciplinary Studies in Literature and Environment The Garden in the Machine is clearly MacDonald's major work It is very original and wide reaching especially in its analysis of the relationship of American avant garde films to the poetry and painting of the native landscape MacDonald's authority is evident everywhere he probably knows more about most of the films he discusses than anyone alive P Adams Sitney author of Modernist Montage The Obscurity of Vision in Cinema and Literature The Garden in the Machine reflects Scott MacDonald's career long lived engagement with avant garde film and filmmakers With deep respect for the artists and a rich wide ranging curiosity about the cultural histories that inform these films MacDonald makes a powerful argument for why they should be screened taught and discussed within the wider context of American Studies Throughout MacDonald analyzes themes of race history personal and public memory and the central role of avant garde films in shaping our possible futures Angela Miller author of Empire of the Eye Landscape Representation and American Cultural Politics 1825 1875 Filming Difference Daniel

Bernardi, 2009-12-03 Addressing representation and identity in a variety of production styles and genres including experimental film and documentary independent and mainstream film and television drama Filming Difference poses fundamental questions about the ways in which the art and craft of filmmaking force creative people to confront stereotypes and examine their own identities while representing the complexities of their subjects Selections range from C A Griffith's Del Otro Lado Border Crossings Disappearing Souls and Other Transgressions and Celine Perre as Shimizu's Pain and

Pleasure in the Flesh of Machiko Saito's Experimental Movies to Christopher Bradley's I Saw You Naked Hard Acting in Gay Movies along with Kevin Sandler's interview with Paris Barclay Yuri Makino's interview with Chris Eyre and many other perspectives on the implications of film production writing producing and acting Technical aspects of the craft are considered as well including how contributors to filmmaking plan and design films and episodic television that feature difference and how the tools of cinema such as cinematography and lighting influence portrayals of gender race and sexuality The struggle between economic pressures and the desire to produce thought provoking socially conscious stories forms another core issue raised in Filming Difference Speaking with critical rigor and creative experience the contributors to this collection communicate the power of their media

Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture John Powers, 2023 The Bolex camera 16mm reversal film stocks commercial film laboratories and low budget optical printers were the small gauge media technologies that provided the infrastructure for experimental filmmaking at the height of its cultural impact Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture examines how the avant garde embraced these material resources and invested them with meanings and values adjacent to those of semiprofessional film culture By reasserting the physicality of the body in making time lapse and kinesthetic sequences with the Bolex filmmakers conversed with other art forms and integrated broader spheres of humanistic and scientific inquiry into their artistic process Drawing from the photographic qualities of stocks such as Tri X and Kodachrome they discovered pliant metaphors that allowed them to connect their artistic practice to metaphysics spiritualism and Hollywood excess By framing film labs as mystical or adversarial they cultivated an oppositionality that valorized control over the artistic process And by using the optical printer as a tool for excavating latent meaning out of found footage they posited the reworking of images as fundamental to the exploration of personal and cultural identity Providing a wealth of new detail about the making of canonized avant garde classics by such luminaries as Carolee Schneemann Jack Smith and Stan Brakhage as well as rediscovering works from overlooked artists such as Chick Strand Amy Halpern and Gunvor Nelson Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture uses technology as a lens for examining the process of making where ideas come from how they are put into practice and how arguments about those ideas foster cultural and artistic commitments and communities

Women and Experimental Filmmaking Jean Petrolle, Virginia Wright Wexman, 2005 Women and Experimental Filmmaking gathers essays by some of the top scholars in cinema studies dealing with women experimental filmmakers Tracking the topic across racial economic geographic and even temporal boundaries Jean Petrolle and Virginia Wexman's selections reflect the deep diversity of methodologies and research The introduction sets out by addressing the basic difficulties of both historiography and definition before providing a historical overview of how these particular filmmakers have helped shape moviemaking traditions The essays explore the major theoretical controversies that have arisen around the work of groundbreaking women such as Leslie Thornton Su Friedrich Nina Menkes and Faith Hubley With the film makers representations of women's subjectivity ranging across film video digital media ethnography animation and collage Women and Experimental Filmmaking represents the full spectrum of genres techniques and modes Papermill Joseph Antony Kalar, 2006 The gritty landscape and language of the working man from a great forgotten writer Becoming Film Literate Vincent LoBrutto, 2005-03-30 Though movies have remained our foremost cultural pastime for over 100 years many of us still know very little about the tools used to create them In this groundbreaking new book Vincent LoBrutto provides an enjoyable and accessible education in the art of cinema using 50 landmark films spanning the history of the medium LoBrutto illustrates such important concepts as editing production design cinematography sound screen acting narrative structure and various genres nationalities and film eras Each concept is illustrated by the selection of a film that epitomizes its use so that readers will learn about film authorship in Citizen Kane multiplot narrative in Nashville widescreen filmmaking in Rebel without a Cause and screen violence in The Wild Bunch Explaining the various tricks of the moviemaking trade Becoming Film Literate offers a crash course in cinema one designed to give even the novice reader a solid introduction to this complex and multifaceted medium Though movies have remained our foremost cultural pastime for over 100 years many of us still know very little about the tools used to create them In this groundbreaking new book Vincent LoBrutto provides an enjoyable and accessible education in the art of cinema using 50 landmark films spanning the history of the medium LoBrutto illustrates such important concepts as editing production design cinematography sound screen acting narrative structure and various genres nationalities and film eras Each concept is illustrated by the selection of a film that epitomizes its use so that readers will learn about film authorship in Citizen Kane multiplot narrative in Nashville widescreen filmmaking in Rebel without a Cause and screen violence in The Wild Bunch Providing a unique opportunity to become acquainted with important movies and the elements of their greatness Becoming Film Literate offers a crash course in cinema one designed to give even the novice reader a solid introduction to this complex and multifaceted medium The Geschlecht Complex Oscar Jansson, David LaRocca, 2022-01-13 The polysemous German word Geschlecht denoting gender genre kind kinship species race and somehow also more exemplifies the most pertinent questions of the translational transdisciplinary transhistorical and transnational structures of the contemporary humanities What happens when texts objects practices and concepts are transferred or displaced from one language tradition temporality or form to another What is readily transposed what resists relocation and what precipitate emerges as distorted or new Drawing on Barbara Cassin's transformative remarks on untranslatability and the activity of philosophizing in languages scholars contributing to The Geschlecht Complex examine these and other durable queries concerning the ontological powers of naming and do so in the light of recent artistic practices theoretical innovations and philosophical incitements Combining detailed case studies of concrete category problems in literature philosophy media cinema politics painting theatre and the performing arts with a range of indispensable excerpts from canonical texts by notable field defining thinkers such as Apter Cassin Cavell Derrida Irigaray
