Critical Condition Women On The Edge Of Violence:

Critical Condition Amy Scholder, 1993-11 Critical Condition includes Carla Kirkwood's autobiographical performance monologue about a girl sexually abused by the men in her family who becomes a feminist activist in the 70s and an artist in the 90s. In impassioned poetry Wanda Coleman takes a look at the embattled lives of African Americans particularly in Los Angeles. Sapphire's searing poems about race and self-realization expose the fallacy of the nuclear family and the vicious cycle of domestic violence. The Theory Girls performance script If You Were like the Heroine in a Country and Western song is both detailed expose and black comedy framing the relationship between Aileen Wuornos and Arlene Pralle the born again Christian who became enamored of Wuornos after her conviction within the context to Hollywood's fascination for women with guns.

The Emerald International Handbook of Feminist Perspectives on Women's Acts of Violence Stacy Banwell, Lynsey Black, Dawn K. Cecil, Yanyi K. Djamba, Sitawa R. Kimuna, Emma Milne, Lizzie Seal, Eric Y.

Tenkorang, 2023-08-02 Grounded in feminist scholarship this book upends normative accounts of femme fatale violence to focus beyond the misogyny and the sensationalism and unearth the motivation behind women's roles in homicide terrorism combat and even nationalist movements.

Carceral Capitalism Jackie Wang, 2018-03-02 Essays on the contemporary continuum of incarceration the biopolitics of juvenile delinquency predatory policing the political economy of fees and fines and algorithmic policing. What we see happening in Ferguson and other cities around the country is not the creation of livable spaces but the creation of living hells. When people are trapped in a cycle of debt it also can affect their subjectivity and how they temporally inhabit the world by making it difficult for them to imagine and plan for the future. What psychic toll does this have on residents? How does it feel to be routinely dehumanized and exploited by the police from Carceral Capitalism? In this collection of essays in Semiotexte's Intervention series Jackie Wang examines the contemporary incarceration techniques that have emerged since the 1990s. The essays illustrate various aspects of the carceral continuum including the biopolitics of juvenile delinquency predatory policing the political economy of fees and fines cybernetic governance and algorithmic policing. Included in this volume is Wang's influential critique of liberal anti-racist politics. Against Innocence as well as essays on RoboCop techno policing and the aesthetic problem of making invisible forms of power legible. Wang shows that the new racial capitalism begins with parasitic governance and predatory lending that extends credit only to dispossess later. Predatory lending has a decidedly spatial character and exists in many forms including subprime mortgage loans student loans for sham for-profit colleges car loans rent to own scams payday loans and bail bond loans. Parasitic governance Wang argues operates through five primary techniques financial states of exception automation extraction and looting confinement and gratuitous violence. While these techniques of governance often involve physical confinement and the state sanctioned execution of black Americans new carceral modes have blurred the distinction between the inside and outside of prison. As technologies of control are perfected carcerality tends to bleed into society.
