Pestritto, Thomas G. West, 2005-01-01 Ronald J Pestritto's and Thomas G West's earlier volume The American Founding and the Social Compact addressed the nature of the thought and philosophy of the men who shaped the American founding In this second volume in a trilogy Pestritto and West examine the fate of the founders principles in the nineteenth century when these principles faced their first great challenges Support of slavery culminating in secession and civil war came from the South and after the war came positivism relativism and radical egalitarianism which originated in Europe and infiltrated American universities where intellectuals repudiated the founders views as historically obsolete and insufficiently concerned with true human liberation In ten chapters covering major thinkers in nineteenth century American political thought contributors discuss the rise and resolution of ideological conflicts in the early generations of the American republic In Challenges to the American Founding Pestritto and West have compiled an invaluable resource for the roots of the twentieth century departure in American politics from the political vision of the American founders Encyclopedia of American Literature Manly, Inc., 2013-06 Susan Clair Imbarrato Carol Berkin Brett Barney Lisa Paddock Matthew J Bruccoli George Parker Anderson Judith S Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Henry Adams and the Making of America Garry Wills, 2005 Bestselling author Wills showcases Henry Adams little known but seminal study of the early United States and draws from it fresh insights on the paradoxes that roil America to this day Critical Essays on Flannery O'Connor Melvin J. Friedman, Beverly Lyon Clark, 1985 This volume contains include twenty eight reviews and critical essays related to American writer and essayist Flannery O'Connor's 1925-1964 life and work The collection begins with an introduction which surveys O'Connor's career and the critical reaction to it the remaining selections are arranged into three sections the first offers twelve reviews dealing with O'Connor's two novels and her collections of short stories and essays the second section provides tributes and reminiscences and the third section includes a chronological record of the critical response to the writing with positive as well as negative soundings are acknowledged Martin Eden and the Education of Henry Adams James Burrill Angell, 2006-04-24 This volume argues that Jack London's Martin Eden and Henry Adams' The Education of Henry Adams are two of the first works in American literature to embody the motif of existentialism The development of the existential dilemma in each work will be supported through references to earlier European existentialist writers with Nietzsche as a focal point The 19th century fin de siècle was a time of tremendous change both materially and philosophically The dawn of the last century was a time of great wealth and imperialistic expansion for Western civilization but also a time in which the seeds were sown for later military conflict the enormity of which the world had never witnessed before From the vantage point of the post World War years the materialism of the fin de siècle was a decorative facade that concealed from view the underlying reality of the human abyss The outbreak of the First World War changed all of that and the two works examined here anticipated that change Henry James described the underlying reality of the fin de siècle when he remarked To have to take it all now for what the treacherous years were all the while making for and meaning is too tragic for any words Henry Adams and Jack London mirror this sentiment in their respective works by depicting the philosophical turbulence of the 19th century fin de siècle

New Essays on The Education of Henry Adams John Carlos Rowe, 1996-06-28 This volume in The American Novel series addresses the established reputation of The Education of Henry Adams as a classic work of American autobiography and canonical work of American literature Examining The Education in terms of early twentieth century American attitudes to education gender US foreign policy and historiography these essays add considerably to our understanding of The Education as an expression of its time The approaches of the four contributors John Carlos Rowe Brook Thomas Martha Banta and Howard Horwitz complement each other even though the specific topic explored by each scholar is distinctly different from the others The result is a remarkably coherent volume that explains in original ways the continuing importance of The Education of Henry Adams as literature and history *CliffsNotes on Adams' *The Education of Henry Adams Stanley P. Baldwin, 2007-08-20 The original CliffsNotes study guides offer a look into critical elements and ideas within classic works of literature The latest generation of titles in this series also features glossaries and visual elements that complement the classic familiar format CliffsNotes on The Education of Henry Adams explores the focal character's boyhood world through the voice of Henry Adams as a man in his late 60s Speaking in third person the narrator treats the younger Henry objectively which establishes the style of the book Following Henry's lifelong protests of the limitations of formal education this study guide provides summaries and commentaries for each of 35 chapters within what has been termed experimental literature and an outstanding work of nonfiction Other features that help you figure out this important work include A look at the author's personal background selected writings and reputation Introduction to the work with a synopsis and character map Character analyses and critical essays Review questions suggested essay topics and practice projects Resource Center with books articles and websites that can help round out your knowledge Classic literature or modern day treasure you'll understand it all with expert information and insight from CliffsNotes study guides

American Madonna John Gatta, 1997-11-27 This book explores a notable if unlikely undercurrent of interest in Mary as mythical Madonna that has persisted in American life and letters from fairly early in the nineteenth century into the later twentieth This imaginative involvement with the Divine Woman verging at times on devotional homage is especially intriguing as manifested in the Protestant writers who are the focus of this study Nathaniel Hawthorne Margaret Fuller Harriet Beecher Stowe Harold Frederic Henry Adams and T S Eliot John Gatta argues that flirtation with the Marian cultus offered Protestant writers symbolic compensation for what might be culturally diagnosed as a deficiency of psychic femininity or anima in America He argues that the literary configurations of the mythical Madonna express a subsurface cultural resistance to the prevailing rationalism and pragmatism of the American mind in an age of entrepreneurial conquest

The Education of Henry Adams Henry Adams, 2009-02-01 The Education of Henry Adams records the struggle of Bostonian Henry Adams 1838 1918 in early old age to come to terms with the dawning 20th century so different from the world of his youth It is also a sharp critique of 19th century educational theory and practice

Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Dedria Bryfonski, Sharon K. Hall, 1981 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide a selection of critical excerpts on the works of thirty authors who lived between 1900 and 1960 each including a biographical critical introduction a list of principal works and a bibliographical citation

History, Historians, and Autobiography Jeremy D. Popkin, 2005-05-09 Though history and autobiography both claim to tell true stories about the past historians have traditionally rejected first person accounts as subjective and therefore unreliable What then asks Jeremy D Popkin in History Historians and Autobiography are we to make of the ever increasing number of professional historians who are publishing stories of their own lives And how is this recent development changing the nature of history writing the historical profession and the genre of autobiography Drawing on the theoretical work of contemporary critics of autobiography and the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur Popkin reads the autobiographical classics of Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams and the memoirs of contemporary historians such as Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie Peter Gay Jill Ker Conway and many others he reveals the contributions historians' life stories make to our understanding of the human experience Historians autobiographies he shows reveal how scholars arrive at their vocations the difficulties of writing about modern professional life and the ways in which personal stories can add to our understanding of historical events such as war political movements and the traumas of the Holocaust An engrossing overview of the way historians view themselves and their profession this work will be of interest to readers concerned with the ways in which we understand the past as well as anyone interested in the art of life writing The Warner Library: The world's best literature Charles Dudley Warner, John William Cunliffe, Ashley Horace Thorndike, Harry Morgan Ayres, Helen Rex Keller, Gerhard Richard Lomer, 1917 Mark Twain: Critical essays Stuart Hutchinson, 1993
