Critical Inquiry Summer 1977 Volume 3 Number 4:

Alien Zone II Annette Kuhn, 1999-12-17 Alien Zone II presents some of the exciting new voices in the current debates. It continues to pursue the critical and theoretical issues opened up in the earlier book and energetically explores fresh territory.

Desiring Whiteness Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks, 2002-11-01 Desiring Whiteness provides a compelling new interpretation of how we understand race. Race is often seen to be a social construction. Nevertheless, we continue to deploy race thinking in our everyday life as a way of telling people apart visually. How do subjects become raced? Is it common sense to read bodies as racially marked? Employing Lacan's theories of the subject and sexual difference, Seshadri-Crooks explores how the discourse of race parallels that of sexual difference in making racial identity a fundamental component of our thinking. Through close readings of literary and film texts, Seshadri-Crooks also investigates whether race is a system of difference equally determined by Whiteness. She argues that it is in relation to Whiteness that systems of racial classification are organized, endowing it with a power to shape human difference. Encyclopaedia of Literature in English M. K. Bhatnagar, 2001. A Compendium of Literature in English Written in the United Kingdom, The Continent, America, Australia, New Zealand, Africa, The West Indies, South Asia, and Other Countries of the Commonwealth. Critical Introduction to All Important Authors and Texts in All Essential Details. Thematic as well as Stylistic. Indispensable Historical, Sociological, Cultural, Literary, and Critical Information to Facilitate a Comprehensive Comparative and Dialogic Discourse. A Ready Compilation of Texts from Different Literary Streams Suitable for Comparative Study. An Invaluable Supplement to Conventional Studies of English, American, or Commonwealth Literature. An Asset of Incalculable Worth for Students, Teachers, Researchers, and Scholars.

Postanarchism and Critical Art Practices Saul Newman, Tihomir Topuzovski, 2024-04-18 Engaging with contemporary debates about the political role of art in an era of total market subsumption, this book shows how artists respond to the challenges of political authoritarianism, police violence, right-wing populism, post-truth discourse, economic inequality, pandemics, and the environmental crisis transforming the public sphere in new and unexpected ways. Going beyond sterile debates about identity, politics, diversity, and representation that beset the mainstream media, university campuses, and other cultural domains, the volume illustrates the ways in which artists are opening up alternative sites of contestation, occupation, and autonomous political thought and action. Newman and Topuzovski examine here the artistic practices of multiple collectives and individuals deeply engaged with social and political activities such as Grupo de Arte Callejero, GAC, and Voina, arguing that the best way to understand these new critical discourses and practices is through an updated political theory of anarchism or what we call postanarchism, where the insurrection against power and the politics of singularity are central. Featuring, for instance, an examination of significant movements such as Black Lives Matter as well as its use of artistic tactics such as graffiti, graphic design, and movement art, the book launches itself into a vibrant discussion of the extent to which art can produce a multiplicity of practices through the deconstruction of existing legal, political, and cultural identities.

By developing an alternative way of exploring the nexus between art and politics through the idea of postanarchism this book bridges the gap between the two promoting an understanding of the political role that art can play today and introduces a theory of postanarchism to a non specialist audience of artists activists and those generally interested in new sites and directions for radical politics Writing and Reading Differently George Douglas Atkins, Michael L.
