Bibliographical supplement

Books annotated in this supplement are additional to those listed in A Language-Teaching Bibliography, compiled and edited by CILT and ETIC. The second edition of this bibliography, published by the Cambridge University Press, appeared in January 1972. This section continues to act as a quarterly supplement.

Centre for Information on Language Teaching and Research Teaching modern languages across the ability range. London: CILT Reports and Papers 8, 1972. 82 pp. 65 p.

Nine papers by various authors arising from a conference held to discuss current problems of teaching modern languages to children of a wide range of ability. Includes an appendix listing recent and current research in this field.

Diller, Karl Conrad

Generative grammar, structural linguistics and language teaching. Rowley, Massachusetts: Newbury House Publishers, Inc., 1971. xi + 124 pp. £3.47½.

First assess the cumulative impact of behaviourist psychology and Bloomfieldian linguistics on language-teaching methods and techniques and then sets this in a wider context of foreign-language learning and teaching. Particular reference is made to

Bibliographical Supplement and Index Harold Bloom, S. T. Joshi, 1989 An Annotated Bibliography of Jane Austen Studies, 1984-94 Barry Roth, 1996 This Professor Roth's third annotated bibliography of studies on Jane Austen covers the years 1984-1994 Like the critically acclaimed earlier volumes it charts the steady growth and enrichment of literary criticism of Austen in the second half of the twentieth century The first bibliography which covered the period 1952-1972 contained 794 items the second which treated 1973-1983 included over 1,060 pieces this third work has 1,327 entries Such concentrated attention paid to this major English novelist shows signs only of intensifying for fresh illuminating interpretations continue to appear at a rapid pace This bibliography serves as a scholarly tool locating and summarizing research so as to establish the present state of our knowledge of Austen studies and to assist others in proceeding as fully informed as possible of past efforts This third bibliography includes all Austen studies first published in the period 1984-1994 more particularly every book essay article and doctoral dissertation on her as well as the critical matter appended to every edition of her works in English and to translations and significant mentions For clarity and ease of reference the bibliography is divided into three main sections The first covers books essays and articles devoted entirely or in good part to Austen including reviews of all the book-length studies The second section focuses on doctoral dissertations wholly or in part about her The third gathers together significant mentions included regardless of length when they entail an unusual perceptive or otherwise striking idea Austen followers everywhere will welcome Roth's thorough research and systematic presentation

Literary Research and British Postmodernism Bridgit McCafferty, Arianne Hartsell-Gundy, 2015-09-02 Literary Research and British Postmodernism is a guide for scholars that aims to connect the complex relationships between print and multimedia technological advancements and the influence of critical theory that converge in postwar British literature This era is unique in that strict boundaries between fiction nonfiction multimedia and print are not useful Postmodern literature is defined by the breaking down of boundaries as a reaction to modernism and requires an innovative multifaceted approach to research In this guide the authors explore these complex relationships and offer strategies for researching this new period of literature This book takes a holistic approach to postmodern literature that recognizes the way in which digital media film critical theory popular music and more traditional print sources are inextricably linked Through this approach the authors present a broad view of postmodernism that includes a wide variety of British authors writing in the last half of the twentieth century The book's definition of postmodern includes any British literature following World War II that engages issues central to postmodern theory including the social construction of gender sexuality and power the subjectivity of truth technology as a social force intertextuality metafiction post colonial narrative and fantasy This guide aims to aid researchers of postwar British literature by defining best practices for scholars conducting research in a period so broadly varied in the way it defines literature
