Eckhardt, 1979 The essays in this collection are attempts to understand medieval aesthetic principles and products not to champion the numerical approach All the essays share a confidence that when Chaucer for example wrote alle thynges been ordeyned and nombred he was enunciating a philosophical and aesthetic principle of fundamental importance to medieval thought The Neckveins of Winter Mansour Ajami, 1984 The Ethical Poetic of the Later Middle Ages Judson Boyce Allen, 1982-12-15 This study of the definition of literature in the late medieval period is based on manuals of writing and on literary commentary and glosses It defines a method of reading which may now profitably explain medieval texts and identifies new primary medieval evidence which may ground and guide new reading Allen chooses texts whose commentary tradition provides the greatest opportunity for completeness The most important of these is Ovid's Metamorphoses Medieval readings of Ovid bring into focus a number of major literary questions the problems of fable and fiction of unity imposed by miscellany poetry of allegorical commentary and of Christian use of pagan culture all in connection with text which furnished medieval authors with more stories than any other single source except possibly the Bible Allen also studies commentaries on the Consolation of Philosophy of Boethius the Thebaid of Statius the De nuptiis of Martianus Capella the medieval Christian hymn book and the Poetria nova of Geoffrey of Vinsauf Together these texts represent the range of medieval literature a literature which Allen concludes was taken as direct ethical discourse logically conducted and artfully organized within a system of language that also assimilated the natural world and sought to absorb its audience
