Cipher Crossword Francis Gurtowski, 2021-01-10. Cipher Crossword provides three puzzle solving aids besides the two profiles of a census of the letters found in the solution. All instances of the most prevalent letter e are put in proper position in the puzzle grid itself. Transliterations of the spellings intended for the sundry niches are listed. A one time pad is provided to tantalizingly not quite break the one time code. The twenty five letters from a to d and from f to z are randomly assigned to up to five groups from 1 to 5. The popular letter e is practically white space. Each group likely contains five letters but such perfect symmetry is rare. The rub is that the one time pad functioning as a cheat is letter to group. Not letter to letter.
