A Manual for the Performance Library Russ Girsberger, 2006-10-18 The performance librarian is the person responsible for managing maintaining and organizing the resources of a performance library This personnel can now benefit from A Manual for the Performance Library a guide for organizing and operating a library of music performance materials Music for performance has different needs than music for study It must be easy to read and understand and it must be formatted so as not to impede the musician s efforts to interpret the notes into musical sound This book outlines step by step the ways of acquiring processing cataloging and preparing music for performance While focusing primarily on music for large ensembles like orchestra and chorus author Russ Girsberger also includes concepts that apply to wind jazz and chamber ensembles The material is logically organized detailing information on purchasing or renting music cataloging and processing scores numbering marking binding and shelving parts and preparing and distributing the music for rehearsal or performance Additional duties such as describing necessary information on preparing concert programs and audition lists and caring for and preserving the library s holdings are also covered The manual concludes with a glossary an annotated bibliography and an appendix which features sample forms for cataloging and circulating the library s materials Music Reference and Research Materials Vincent Harris Duckles, Ida Reed, Michael A. Keller, 1997 This text has been the standard guide to source literature of music and contains critically annotated listings of over 3 500 key sources This comprehensive guide to reference sources is organized into chapters by category of source The text s organization introduces students to a vast array of sources to include Dictionaries and Encyclopedias Histories and Chronologies Sources of Systematic and Historical Musicology Bibliographies of Music Music Literature and Music Business Reference Works on Individual Composers and Their Music Catalogs of Libraries and Musical Instrument Collections Discographies Yearbooks Directories Electronic Resources American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S. Wynar, 1988 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering Flute Music by Women Composers H Alais Boenke, 1988-10-19 For the flutist wishing to perform music composed by women this annotated catalog will come as a most welcome addition to the numerous flute bibliographies now available Boenke has spent four years gleaning all possible sources to come up with several hundred listings of composers from three centuries and 40 different countries When the information is available she lists publisher and the OCLC system record number after the routinely listed title and instrumentation In addition to the alphabetical listing are indexes for instrumentation title publisher and composer A short list of sources is heavy on LC and NUC catalogs as well as the several standard sources on women in music This volume could serve as an example for instrument specific music bibliographies For flutists it is priceless Choice This book an alphabetical listing of flute music by women composers provides ready access to flute music that is published or available in manuscript form Unlike any previous handbook of the flute repertoire it is devoted entirely to the works of women the vast majority of whom are not mentioned in the standard catalogs of flute literature A carefully compiled study the volume examines the quantity variety and scope of women s work in this genre and includes composers from more than forty countries spanning three centuries It contains works for solo flute duets flute and piano concertos woodwind quintets other chamber ensembles or any work that employs soloistic use of the flute It also provides biographical information on the composers publishers availability of works and annotations on the works themselves All compositions are indexed by title and by instrumentation and publishers and contemporary composers are listed with current addresses to facilitate the ordering of music The first published volume of its kind this unusual work will draw attention to valuable and unknown repertoire in this genre and provide the opportunity for women s works to be heard more often It will be useful in all university music libraries and conservatories and it will be a valuable resource for professional flutists teachers of flute and researcher in women s studies

Organ and Harpsichord Music by Women Composers Adel Heinrich,1991-06-30 This reference work catalogs music for organ and harpsichord written by more than 700 women composers from 40 countries Compiler Adel Heinrich has expanded the organ and harpsichord repertoire to include choir and instruments accompanying organ and harpsichord She provides more detailed information about each work than can be found in any other reference book on women composers In addition to biographies for each woman Heinrich supplies listings of individual compositions and includes descriptions and sources whenever possible Each composition is listed in both the Instrumentation Index and the Title Index Publishers library sources and recording companies with their addresses are also provided There is also a chronological listing of composers by country Two appendices list a large number of women who have either written music for organ and harpsichord with no specific titles known or have performed on one or both instruments This reference book is a valuable resource for organists harpsichordists teachers choral and instrumental conductors and planners of festivals and recitals
