Crossing The Gods World Religions And Worldly Politics:

Crossing the Gods Nicholas Jay Demerath, 2003 Finally Demerath places within a comparative context the commonly held view that America is the world's most religious nation and argues that our country is not more religious but differently religious He concludes that the United States represents a unique combination of congregational religion religious pluralism and civil religion Jacket An Introduction to Religion and Politics Jonathan Fox, 2018-02-13 This fully revised edition offers a comprehensive overview of the many theories of religion and politics and provides students with an accessible in depth guide to the subject's most significant debates issues and methodologies It begins by asking the basic questions of how social scientists see religion and why religion remains relevant to politics in the modern era Fox examines the influence of religious identity beliefs institutions and legitimacy on politics and surveys important approaches and issues found in the literature on religion and politics Four new chapters on religious policy around the world political secularism and religious freedom and human rights have been added to fully revised content covering religious identity rational choice approaches to religious politics worldviews beliefs doctrines ideologies institutions and political mobilization fundamentalism secularization and religion and conflict This work will be essential reading for all students of religion and politics comparative politics international relations and security studies The Oxford Handbook of Church and State in the United States Derek Davis, 2010-11-18 21 essays present a scholarly look at the intricacies and past and current debates that frame the American system of church and state within 5 main areas history politics sociology theology philosophy and law The SAGE Handbook of the Sociology of Religion James A Beckford, Jay Demerath, 2007-10-29 In their introduction to this Handbook the editors affirm Many sociologists have come to realise that it makes no sense now to omit religion from the repertoire of social scientific explanations of social life I wholeheartedly agree I also suggest that this wide ranging set of essays should become a starting point for such enquiries Each chapter is clear comprehensive and well structured making the Handbook a real asset for all those engaged in the field Grace Davie University of Exeter Serious social scientists who care about making sense of the world can no longer ignore the fact that religious beliefs and practices are an important part of this world This Handbook is a valuable resource for specialists and amateurs alike The editors have done an exceptionally fine job of incorporating topics that illuminate the range and diversity of religion and its continuing significance throughout the world Robert Wuthnow Princeton University At a time when religions are increasingly affecting and affected by life beyond the narrowly sacred sphere religion everywhere seems to be caught up in change and conflict In the midst of this contention and confusion the sociology of religion provides a rich source of understanding and explanation This Handbook presents an unprecedentedly comprehensive assessment of the field both where it has been and where it is headed Like its many distinguished contributors its topics and their coverage are truly global in their reach The Handbook's 35 chapters are organized into eight sections basic theories and debates methods of studying religion social forms and experiences of religion issues of power and control in religious organizations religion and politics individual religious behaviour in social context religion self identity and the life course and case studies of China Eastern Europe Israel Japan and Mexico Each chapter establishes benchmarks for the state of sociological thinking about religion in the 21st century and provides a rich bibliography for pursuing its subject further Overall the Handbook stretches the field conceptually methodologically comparatively and historically An indispensable source of guidance and insight for both students and scholars Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2009 The Future of Peace and Justice in the Global Village Thomas R. McFaul, 2006-09-30 Many authors have written on the effect technology economics and politics have on globalization but few have addressed the potential impact of world religions on the future direction of globalization McFaul's fascinating book explores what others have not the part the world's major religions Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity and Islam will play in bringing either greater peace and justice or hatred and hostility to the global village Will these religions which exert the greatest amount of influence worldwide be a force for good or ill in the emerging global village of the 21st century This book answers that question and more Covering the religions to which the majority of world's population adheres it offers insight into the commonalities differences and potential for coming together to create peace to be found among the major faiths The world's seven major religions are covered and topics such as sexuality ethics violence and the tension between secular and sacred arenas are discussed for each McFaul argues that if the leaders and laity of these religions are able to find common ground efforts toward peace and justice in the global village can be more effective and lasting If they accentuate their differences he suggests they will only produce more hatred and hostility The Politics of Secularism in International Relations Elizabeth Shakman Hurd, 2008 This textbook develops a new approach to religion and international relations that challenges realist liberal and constructivist assumptions that religion has been excluded from politics in the West The Review of Faith & International Affairs, 2006 Violence in God's Name Oliver J. McTernan, 2003 A timely exploration of the links between religious faith and global violence and how to break them Religious Pluralism and Civil Society Wade Clark Roof, 2007-06-27 Organized into three major topics the articles in this volume delve into this urgent topic of our day and offer valuable insights in the following areas I Broad Perspectives Providing a solid foundation this opening section lays the groundwork for clarifying this complex issue II Region and Religion The papers in this section point to the importance of regional history and culture in shaping differing styles of pluralism within America III Minority Immigrant Experiences Focusing on contemporary immigrant and minority groups in the United States these articles reflect on the experiences of Muslims Orthodox Jews and Latino religions as well as the role of interfaith leaders in the 2005 2006 immigration reform debate IV Institutional Patterns Examining creative ways that pluralism is flourishing within the United States these articles provide a framework for future interfaith dialog Social scientists religious scholars policy makers and the informed public will find this volume of The ANNALS to be a valuable resource that distills this complex and sometimes cloudy issue of religious pluralism      Religion, Politics, and Turkey's EU Accession Dietrich Jung, Catharina Raudvere, 2008-09-15 Considers Turkey and the EU through a variety of perspectives including historical political social religious and legal This book addresses questions such as the role of religion in EU membership debates religious parties in Turkey and Europe religion and European security freedom of religion and minority rights in Turkey and the EU      Ethnic Conflict Rajat Ganguly, 2009-10-02 Ethnic conflicts in various scales and forms are a feature of the post Cold War international landscape from which no region of the world is completely free In terms of impact it has been equally devastating for both developed and developing states Therefore there has never been a more appropriate time to study ethnic conflict in all its dimensions This four volume collection examines the many facets of ethnic conflict including their causes consequences and resolution      Wealth, Poverty, and Human Destiny Doug Bandow, 2003 The rapid spread of the liberal market economy throughout the world poses a host of new and complex questions In Wealth Poverty and Human Destiny editors Doug Bandow and David L Schindler bring together some of today's leading economists theologians and social critics including Wendell Berry Michael Novak Richard John Neuhaus and Max Stackhouse to consider whether the triumph of capitalism is a cause for celebration or concern      The Paradox of a Global USA Bruce Mazlish, Nayan Chanda, Kenneth Weisbrode, 2007-05-04 A uniquely diverse collection of essays on the global reach of American power institutions and culture from the 19th century to the present day      Living Our Religions Anjana Narayan, Bandana Purkayastha, 2009 The population of the South Asian Diaspora in the US is over 2.5 million people Yet in a post 9/11 climate of opinion little is known about this group beyond images of Muslim and Hindu fundamentalists and terrorists This is particularly true of women where simplistic assumptions about veils and subordination obscure the voices of the women themselves Rarely are Hindu and Muslim American women many of whom are social workers physicians lawyers academics students homemakers asked about their everyday lives and religious beliefs Living our Religions brings out these hidden stories from South Asian American women of Bangladeshi Pakistani Indian and Nepali origin Their accounts show how diverse and culturally dynamic religious practices emerge within the intersection of histories and politics of specific locales The authors describe the race gender and ethnic boundaries they encounter they also document how they resist and challenge these boundaries Living our Religions cuts through the myths and ethnocentrism of popular portrayals to reveal the vibrancy courage and agency of an invisible minority Other Contributors Shobha Hamal Gurung Selina Jamil Salma Kamal Shweta Majumdar Bidya Ranjeet Shanthi Rao Aysha Saeed Monoswita Saha Neela Bhattacharya Saxena Parveen Talpur Elora Halim Chowdhury and Rafia Zakaria      Evangelicalism and Conflict in Northern Ireland Gladys Ganiel, 2008-04-15 This book explores the role of evangelicalism in the conflict in Northern Ireland and discusses how it may contribute to a peaceful political transition Ganiel analyzes the traditional evangelicals who are associated with the Reverend Ian Paisley as well as a new breed of mediating evangelicals who have broken with the traditions of the past Comparing evangelical politics in Northern Ireland to the U S and Canada this book sheds light on future directions for Northern Irish evangelicalism The conclusion has global reverberations as it reflects on the place of strong religions such as evangelicalism and other forms of fundamentalism in contemporary world politics      Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science American Academy of Political and Social Science,2007      Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2002 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests      A Phoenix Rising Ron Duncan Hart,Ronald J. Duncan-Hart,2007 This timely book examines the resurgence of the major civilizations of the Middle East India and China as they claim their historic places of power and prestige This book explores the history culture religion ethnic composition and experience with the West of each of these world regions      Social Theory and Practice ,2005      God Needs No Passport Peggy Levitt,2007 A provocative examination of how new realities of religion and migration are subtly challenging the very definition of what it means to be an American Sociology professor Levitt argues that immigrants no longer trade one membership card for another but stay close to their home countries indelibly altering American religion and values with experiences and beliefs imported from Asia Latin America and Africa The book is a pointed response to Samuel Huntington s famous clash of civilisations thesis and looks at global religions organisation for the first time
