Crossing the Green Line Between the West Bank and Israel Avram S. Bornstein, 2002 Crossing the Green Line Between the West Bank and Israel makes eloquent use of particular Palestinian experiences as the framework for a critique of the way borders work in the modern world

Crossing the Green Line Between the West Bank and Israel Avram S. Bornstein, 2002 Crossing the Green Line Between the West Bank and Israel makes eloquent use of particular Palestinian experiences as the framework for a critique of the way borders work in the modern world

Israel/Palestine Drew Paul, 2020-01-07 Since the early 1990s Israel has greatly expanded a system checkpoints walls and other barriers in the West Bank and Gaza that restrict Palestinian movement Israel Palestine examines how authors and filmmakers have grappled with the spread of these borders Focusing on the works of Elia Suleiman Raba i al Madhoun Ghassan Kanafani Sami Michael and Sayed Kashua it traces how political engagement in literature and film has shifted away from previously common paradigms of resistance and coexistence and has become reorganised around these now ubiquitous physical barriers Depictions of these borders interrogate the notion that such spaces are impenetrable and unbreakable imagine distinct forms of protest and redefine the relationship between cultural production and political engagement

Mobility, Spatiality, and Resistance in Literary and Political Discourse Christian Beck, 2021-11-11 Mobility Space and Resistance Transformative Spatiality in Literary and Political Discourse draws from various disciplines such as geography sociology political science gender studies and poststructuralist thought to posit the productive capabilities of literature in political action and at the same time show how literary art can resist the imposition and domination of oppressive systems of our spatial lives The various approaches topics and types of literature discussed in this volume display a concern for social issues that can be addressed in and through literature The essays address social injustice oppression discrimination and their spatial representations While offering interpretations of literature this collection seeks to show how literary spaces contribute to understanding changing or challenging physical spaces of our lived world

Boundaries in Flux, the Green Line Boundary Between Israel and the West Bank David Newman, 1995

Israelis and Palestinians in the Shadows of the Wall Stéphanie Latte Abdallah, Cédric Parizot, 2016-03-09 Shedding light on the recent mutations of the Israeli separation policy whose institutional and spatial configurations are increasingly complex this book argues that this policy has actually reinforced the interconnectedness of Israelis and Palestinian lives and their spaces Instead of focusing on the over mediatized separation wall this book deals with what it hides its shadows Based on fieldwork studies carried out by French Italian Israeli Palestinian and Swiss researchers on the many sides of the Israeli Palestinian divide it highlights a new geography of occupation specific forms of interconnectedness and power relations between Israeli and Palestinian spaces It offers a better understanding of the transformation of people s interactions their experiences and the ongoing economy of exchanges created by the separation regime This heterogeneous regime increasingly involves the participation of Palestinian and international actors Grounded in refined decryptions of territorial realities and of experiences of social actors daily lives this book goes beyond usual political media and security representations and discourses on conflict to understand its contemporary stakes on the ground

Palestine Speaks Cate Malek, 2014-11-11 The occupation of the West Bank and Gaza has been one of the world's most widely reported yet least understood human rights crises for over four decades In this oral history collection men and women from Palestine including a fisherman a settlement administrator and a marathon runner describe in their own words how their lives have been shaped by the historic crisis Other narrators include ABEER a young journalist from Gaza City who launched her career by covering bombing raids on the Gaza Strip IBTISAM the director of a multi faith children's center in the West Bank whose dream of starting a similar center in Gaza has so far been hindered by border closures GHASSAN an Arab Christian physics professor and activist from Bethlehem who co founded the International Solidarity Movement The Yale Journal of International Law, 2005 The Encyclopedia of the Arab-Israeli Conflict Spencer C. Tucker, Priscilla Roberts, 2008-05-12 This exhaustive work offers readers at multiple levels key insights into the military political social cultural and religious origins of the Arab Israeli conflict The Encyclopedia of the Arab Israeli Conflict A Political Social and Military History is the first comprehensive general reference encompassing all aspects of the contentious Arab Israeli relationship from biblical times to the present with an emphasis on the era beginning with World War I The Encyclopedia of the Arab Israeli Conflict goes beyond simply recapping military engagements In four volumes with more than 750 alphabetically organized entries plus a separate documents volume it provides a wide ranging introduction to the distinct yet inextricably linked Arab and Israeli worlds and worldviews exploring all aspects of the conflict The objective analysis will help readers understand the dramatic events that have impacted the entire world from the founding of modern Israel to the building of the Suez Canal from the Six Day War to the Camp David Accords from the assassinations of Anwar Sadat and Yitzhak Rabin to the rise and fall of Yasser Arafat the 2006 Palestinian elections and the Israeli Hezbollah War in Lebanon

The Israeli Policy of Closure, 1995 Making Sense of the Global Raúl Acosta, Sadaf Rizvi, Ana Santos, 2010 Anthropology is more relevant than ever before to making sense of the constant intercultural encounters taking place around the world Even though the discipline was born out of the need to understand the way humans interact it had for decades been trapped in a counter cultural stance that effectively disarmed it of any direct influence on public affairs Recent global trends however have brought this academic discipline to the attention of governments agencies and social entrepreneurs because of its capacity to create bridges of understanding between people of contrasting cultures This ability is today more necessary than ever before in facing the challenges posed by the shrinking of our world This volume provides reflections on what anthropological research can offer through its oethick analyses We are convinced that ethnographic research can contribute to a better understanding of social phenomena in our global times Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2005 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Palestinian

Secular Terrorism Yonah Alexander, 2003 Table of contents      Jewish Book World , 2002      Peace Research Abstracts Journal , 2006      Journal of Palestine Studies , 2007 A quarterly on Palestinian affairs and the Arab Israeli conflict

Globalization and America Angela J. Hattery, David G. Embrick, Earl Smith, 2008-05-21 As globalization expands more than goods and information are traded between the countries of the world Hattery Embrick and Smith present a collection of essays that explore the ways in which issues of human rights and social inequality are shared globally The editors focus on the United States role in contributing to human rights violations both inside and outside its borders Essays on contemporary issues such as immigration colonialism and reparations are used to illustrate how the U S and the rest of the world are inextricably linked in their relationships to human rights violations and social inequality Contributors include Judith Blau Eduardo Bonilla Silva and Joe R Feagin      Forms of Aid Benedict Clouette, Marlisa Wise, 2017-09-11 For some time now the subject of cooperation in the context of development aid has featured in the education of architects However up to now there have hardly been any attempts to critically place the work of architects and urban designers in this context The book highlights the architectural consequences of humanitarian actions on the basis of three case studies in Port au Prince the West Bank and Nairobi The authors analyze twelve projects in terms of typology and construction and establish a differentiated position in the discourse on short term housing for emergency situations They investigate the far reaching effects of such architectural aid and supply architects town planners and NGOs with useful advice for future planning and design      The Geopolitics Of Israel's Border Question Saul B Cohen, 1987-09-20      The International Migration Review , 2002
