Sebald and the Writing of History Anne Fuchs, Jonathan James Long, 2007 Summary W G Sebald frequently mentioned in the same breath as Franz Kafka and Vladimir Nabokov is one of the most important European writers of recent decades He has been lauded by such major cultural commentators as Susan Sontag and Paul Auster and he has combined wide public appeal with universal critical acclaim His work is concerned with questions of memory exile representation and above all else history But his approach to history is strikingly different from conventional historiographical writing on the one hand and from the historical novel on the other His texts are hybrid in nature mixing fiction biography historiography travel writing and memoir and incorporating numerous photographic images This volume seeks to respond to the complexities of Sebald's image of history by presenting essays by a team of international scholars all of whom are acknowledged Sebald experts It offers a unique and exciting perspective on the dazzling work of one of the major literary figures of our times Publisher description Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Seaching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies of the North Sea Lowlands Katie Ritson, 2018-10-26 Global seawater levels are rising and the low lying coasts of the North Sea basin are amongst the most vulnerable in Europe In our current moment of environmental crisis the North Sea coasts are literary arenas in which the challenges and concerns of the Anthropocene are being played out This book shows how the fragile landscapes around the North Sea have served as bellwethers for environmental concern both now and in the recent past It looks at literary sources drawn from the countries around the North Sea Denmark Germany the Netherlands and England from the mid nineteenth century onwards taking them out of their established national and cultural contexts and reframing them in the light of human concern with fast changing and hazardous environments The six chapters serve as literary case studies that highlight memories of flood disaster and recovery attempts to engineer the landscape into submission perceptions of the landscape as both local and global and the imagination of the future of our planet This approach which combines environmental history and ecocriticism shows the importance of cultural artefacts in understandings of and responses to environmental change and advocates for the importance of literary studies in the environmental humanities This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the Environmental Humanities including Eco criticism and Environmental History as well as anyone studying literature from the Germanic philologies

The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan,2011-12-13 Novels began to incorporate literary theory in unexpected ways in the late twentieth century Through allusion parody or implicit critique theory formed an additional strand in fiction that raised questions about the nature of authorship and the practice of writing Studying this phenomenon provides fresh insight into the recent development of the novel and the persistence of modern theory beyond the period of its greatest success In this book Judith Ryan opens these questions to a range of readers drawing them into debates over the value of theory Ryan investigates what prompted fiction writers to incorporate and respond to theory nearly thirty years ago Designed for readers unfamiliar with the complexities of theory Ryan s book introduces the discipline s major trends and controversies and notes the salient ideas of a carefully selected set of individual thinkers Ryan follows novelists adaptation to and engagement with arguments drawn from theory as they translate abstract ideas into language structure and fictional strategy At the core of her book is a fascinating microstudy of French poststructuralism in its dialogue with narrative fiction Investigating theories

Beebee, 2014-07-31 This new collection investigates German literature in its international dimensions While no single volume can deal comprehensively with such a vast topic the nine contributors cover a wide historical range with a variety of approaches and authors represented Together the essays begin to adumbrate the systematic nature of the relations between German national literature and world literature as these have developed through institutions cultural networks and individual authors In the last two decades discussions of world literature literature that resonates beyond its original linguistic and cultural contexts have come increasingly to the forefront of theoretical investigations of literature One reason for the explosion of world literature theory pedagogy and methodology is the difficulty of accomplishing either world literature criticism or world literary history The capaciousness as well as the polylingual and multicultural features of world literature present formidable obstacles to its study and call for a collaborative approach that conjoins a variety of expertise To that end this collection contributes to the critical study of world literature in its textual institutional and translatorial reality while at the same time highlighting a question that has hitherto received insufficient scholarly attention what is the relation between national and world literatures or more specifically in what senses do national literatures systematically
