Twentieth-century Reworkings of German Literature Gundula

Sharman, 2002 A study of six modern reworkings of classic works of German literature A literary reworking is a fictional work based on an earlier usually canonical literary work Gundula M Sharman considers six twentieth century examples of this phenomenon in German literature including Peter Schneider's Lenz as a reworking of Georg Büchner's novella of the same title Ulrich Plenzdorf's Die neuen Leiden des jungen Werther as a reworking of Goethe's Werther Wolfgang Koeppen's Der Tod in Rom based on Thomas Mann's Der Tod in Venedig and three other pairs of reworkings original works from the genres of drama the novella and the novel The indebtedness of such reworkings to the original works is openly acknowledged often in the title and this invites the reader to draw comparisons and to note contrasts between reworking and original The twentieth century author's interpretation and the reader's reception of the older work merge to form a subtext of the reworking giving rise to a third narrative in the reader's imagination The better the reader knows the literary model the more multifaceted the reworking appears The purpose of each reworking is unique One may demonstrate how much the world has changed since the publication of the original while another argues that society has not changed at all One may be conceived as an anti work to the original while another serves to endorse its message Common to all reworkings however is a gain in historical depth and in each case themes and issues arise from the relationship of reworking to original that are not immediately apparent when the reworking is considered on its own Gundula M Sharman teaches in the German Department at the University of Aberdeen Scotland

Understanding Marx, Understanding

Modernism Mark Steven, 2021-01-14 A concentrated study of the relationships between modernism and transformative left utopianism this volume provides an introduction to Marx and Marxism for modernists and an introduction to modernism for Marxists Its guiding hypothesis is that Marx's writing absorbed the lessons of artistic and cultural modernity as much as his legacy concretely shaped modernism across multiple media

Edinburgh German Yearbook 5 Laura Bradley, Karen

Leeder, 2011-10 While Bertolt Brecht became identified internationally as the cultural figurehead of the GDR his relationship with the authorities was always complex This book examines his activities in the GDR and the regime's marginalizing response and posthumous appropriation of his legacy

Joan of Arc Gail Patterson, 2002 Few individuals in the annals of world history have had so lasting an impact as Joan of Arc who rallied a country behind her and continues to inspire people today Although she began life as a peasant she became a key figure in the latter stages of the Hundred Years War As a teenager she experienced visions from God calling her to aid the French king Her confidence and bearing along with her fervent adherence to God and her Catholic faith belied her age and so influenced the monarch that he made her commander of one of his companies She helped lead the French forces in battle against the English in turn becoming a national icon However she was eventually captured and tried by the English in a trial rife with ecclesiastical and political overtones Convicted as a heretic Joan was sentenced and burned at the stake As a martyr she gained mythic status and the Roman Catholic Church made her a saint in 1920 This book presents a fascinating study of Joan of Arc s life based on excerpts from John A Mooney s gripping 1919 biography The overview is augmented by a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access provided through author title and subject indexes Towards a Productive Aesthetics Keith O'Regan, 2021-12-06 In Towards a Productive Aesthetics Contemporary and Historical Interventions in Blake and Brecht Keith O'Regan mobilises a constellative approach to compare the political aesthetic strategies of William Blake 1757 1827 and Bertolt Brecht 1898 1956 O'Regan traces two similar trajectories in each author s work an exploration of how capitalist domination defines conjunctures and an investigation of how historical figures themes and terrains illustrate past failures or losses that can be cleaved open for radical possibilities in the present Brecht and Blake posit an oppositional aesthetics of the now that articulates a theory of experience under capitalism while counter posing an oppositional form of existence
