Die Manager Roman:

Pharmaceutical Review ,1899 Die manager ,1965 Cultural Memories Peter Meusburger,Michael Heffernan,Edgar Wunder,2011-05-11 The revival of interest in collective cultural memories since the 1980s has been a genuinely global phenomenon Cultural memories can be defined as the social constructions of the past that allow individuals and groups to orient themselves in time and space The investigation of cultural memories has necessitated an interdisciplinary perspective though geographical questions about the spaces places and landscapes of memory have acquired a special significance The essays in this volume written by leading anthropologists geographers historians and psychologists open a range of new interpretations of the formation and development of cultural memories from ancient times to the present day The volume is divided into five interconnected sections The first section outlines the theoretical considerations that have shaped recent debates about cultural memory The second section provides detailed case studies of three key themes the founding myths of the nation state the contestation of national collective memories during periods of civil war and the oral traditions that move beyond national narrative The third section examines the role of World War II as a pivotal episode in an emerging European cultural memory The fourth section focuses on cultural memories in postcolonial contexts beyond Europe The fifth and final section extends the study of cultural memory back into premodern tribal and nomadic societies The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco,2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism American Stationer and Office Manager ,1919 Contracts for a Third-Party Beneficiary Jan Hallebeek,Harry Dondorp,2008 This study deals with the concept of contracts for a third party beneficiary which is nowadays generally accepted in Western European jurisdictions The subject is discussed in its development through the ages as well as from the perspective of present day comparative law Literature and the Law in South Africa, 1910-2010 Ted Laros,2017-12-29 In 1994 artistic freedom pertaining inter alia to literature was enshrined in the South African Constitution. Clearly the establishment of this right was long overdue compared to other nations within the Commonwealth. Indeed the legal framework and practices regarding the regulation of literature that were introduced following the nation's transition to a non-racial democracy seemed to form a decisive turning point in the history of South African censorship of literature. This study employs a historical sociological point of view to describe how the nation's emerging literary field helped pave the way for the constitutional entrenchment of this right in 1994. On the basis of institutional and poetological analyses of all the legal trials concerning literature that were held in South Africa during the period 1910-2010, it describes how the battles fought in and around the courts between literary, judicial and executive elites eventually led to a constitutional exception for literature. As the South African judiciary displayed an ongoing orientation towards both English and American law in this period, the analyses are firmly placed in the context of developments occurring concurrently in these two legal systems.
