Italian Cinema and Modern European Literatures Carlo Testa, 2002-03-30 The history of cinema and notably that of post war Italian cinema can only be understood adequately in the context of other contiguous cultural disciplines World literature including that of France Germany and Russia played a key role in the development of post war Italian film and the cinematic technique it has come to embody Moving away from the usual modes of defining this period a trajectory that begins with neorealism and ends with Bertolucci author Carlo Testa offers proof that coming to terms with literary texts is an essential step toward understanding the motion pictures they influenced The means of recreating literature for the screen has changed drastically over the last half century as has the impact of different national traditions on Italian cinema Testa's work is the first to explicitly and deliberately link postwar Italian cinema to general intellectual concerns such as the relationship between literary authors and cinematic auteurs Moreover his analysis of the impact of French German and Russian cultures on Italy brings forth a new reading of Italian cinema a new paradigm for exploring complex issues of authorship culture and art Intertextualität und Phraseologie in den drei Versionen der Panne von Friedrich Dürrenmatt Liliana Mitrache, 1999
