Crises Youth Face Today:

Crises Youth Face Today Shirley Pratt Schwarzrock, Charles Gilbert Wrenn, 1984 Crises Youth Face Today Shirley Pratt Schwarzrock, Charles Gilbert Wrenn, 1973 Generation on Hold James E. Cote, Anton Allahar, 1996 Traces historical constructions of adolescence and considers coming of age in the late 20th century Young adults in the modern era face a completely differently set of challenges from previous generations Tracing historical constructions of adolescence and their role in maintaining social order James E Cote and Anton L Allahar persuasively argue that young people today constitute one of the most disadvantaged and vulnerable groups in society Today for the first time teenagers and young adults in the United states Canada Japan Scandinavia and Western Europe can expect to have a lower standard of living than their parents Youth are conditioned to stay young linger and have as a result become socially and economically marginalized Many young people amass credentials regardless of employment prospects and continue to live at home often dependent on their parents into their thirties With fewer jobs available young people are ironically targeted increasingly as consumers rather than as producers As new technologies continually reduce the work force and alter the social fabric an entire generation of young people has struggled to keep up What then does it mean to come of age in an advanced industrial or post industrial society
