Crisis Consciousness And The Novel:

Crisis-consciousness and the Novel Eugene Hollahan, 1992 This book examines the emergence of modern consciousness as consciousness develops historically in one cultural form prose fiction narrative The book represents a critical history of crisis arguably the most characterizing single word in the modern world and a major figuration or trope Eugene Hollahan has studied the history of this important word within the development of the English language novel from Samuel Richardson to Saul Bellow After establishing a heuristic model for such a critical history Hollahan tracks the word characterized by George Eliot in Felix Holt the Radical as a great noun through two and a half centuries of narratives by major novelists with contextualizing excursions into discourses in related fields such as autobiography philosophy theology and social science Hollahan contextualizes his study of English language narrative fiction by examining the writings of crisis rhetoricians in the eighteenth century Thomas Paine nineteenth century Thomas Carlyle J S Mill and J H Newman and twentieth century Karl Barth Edmund Husserl T S Kuhn and Richard M Nixon Such varied and powerful crisis rhetorics establish a matrix of language and ideas for the crisis centered novels Hollahan surveys These novels include major works by Samuel Richardson Walter Scott Jane Austen George Eliot George Meredith George Gissing George Moore D H Lawrence E M Forster James Joyce Lawrence Durrell Robert Coover and Saul Bellow Hollahan's description of the crisis trope interfaces with various critical issues such as canonical inclusion reader response and deconstruction On the whole his book acknowledges current critical issues but endeavors to remain basically a critical history It attempts to demonstrate that the crisis riddled modern world and the crisis conscious novel are analogous and coeval Crisis begins as Aristotle's term for logical plot structuring becomes Longinus's term for emotional exacerbation and eventually enters into a variety of critical and narrative formulations Matthew Arnold's cultural centrality Henry James's existential aestheticism Lawrence's self defining sexuality Marshall Brown's revolutionary turning point Paul de Man's error ridden criticism Floyd Merrell's cut into the primordial flux Durrell's reborn self and Bellow's analysis of hysterical escapism Broadly speaking Hollahan argues that any crisis trope will enable or even necessitate a unique confluence of writerly and readerly skills In Louis Lambert Balzac urged What a wonderful book one would write by narrating the life and adventures of a word The story Hollahan narrates fulfills Balzac's expectations as it depicts writer after writer working out influential representations of human life in terms of crisis consciousness centering upon George Eliot's great noun crisis Historically Hollahan demonstrates such consciousness comes to define modern humanity

Saul Bellow and the Modern Wasteland G.

Neelakantan, 2000     Jane Austen Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2011 A comprehensive look at the academic criticism of Jane Austen from her time down to the present Among the most important English novelists Jane Austen is unusual because she is esteemed not only by academics but by the reading public Her novels continue to sell well and films adapted from her works enjoy strong box office success The trajectory of Austen criticism is intriguing especially when one compares it to that of other nineteenth century English writers At least partly because she was a woman in the early nineteenth century she was long neglected by critics hardly considered a major figure in English literature until well into the twentieth century a hundred years after her death Yet consequently she did not suffer from the reaction against Victorianism that did so much to hurt the reputation of Dickens Tennyson Arnold and others How she rose to prominence among academic critics and has retained her position through the constant shifting of academic and critical trends is a story worth telling as it suggests not only something about Austen's artistry but also about how changes in critical perspective can radically alter a writer's reputation Laurence W. Mazzeno is President Emeritus of Alvernia University Reading Pennsylvania     Red-Light Novels of the Late Qing Chloë F. Starr, 2007 Chloe Starr's book offers a comprehensive literary reading of six nineteenth century Chinese red light novels and assesses how and why they alter our view of late Qing fiction and the authorial self     American Novel Explication, 1991-1995 Catherine Glitsch, 1998 Covers criticism of American novels found in journals and books published between the years 1991 and 1995     The Crisis Paradigm Andrew Simon Gilbert, 2019-05-28 This book examines how 20th century theorists have used a discourse of crisis to frame their conceptualizations of modernity Through an investigation of four key thinkers Georg Lukács Hannah Arendt Reinhart Koselleck and Jürgen Habermas Gilbert argues that scholars in the social sciences and humanities should be cautious of treating crises as explananda for research Instead the book calls for sociological analysis of the role of crisis within social scientific discourse and examines how crisis has been used as a conceptual frame for legitimating theoretical agendas Gilbert's sociology of concepts approach presents crisis as a paradigm of modern thought and more generally reflects on how concepts can become the carriers of diverse intellectual traditions and debates The Crisis Paradigm will be of interest to students and scholars of social and critical theory politics sociology and history as well as those working in the fields of media studies communication and discourse analysis     Scottish Literary Journal, 1991     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1993     Politics and Social Visions Maurizio Ferrera, 2024-03-04 The starting point of this book is the civil war of ideas that broke out during the early 2010s about the purpose and even the desirability of the European Union as a polity with a number of right wing populist formations openly advocating for exiting the Union The sovereign debt crisis triggered a spiral of ideological decommunalization national leaders seemed to have lost that sense of togetherness and mutual bonds that had been laboriously developed over decades of integration Politics and Social Visions explores this politically disruptive process from an ideational perspective on the assumption that symbols and visions play a crucial role In processes of polity formation ideologies offer competing partisan views but tend to converge along the communal dimension which defines the nature and boundaries of the emerging polity This convergence has been a challenge for the EU since its origins as it has required the construction of a coherent and acceptable image of Europe as a compound polity of nation states with a divisive past Maurizio Ferrera offers a reconstruction of how the main ideological currents have struggled and often failed to reconfigure their horizontal profiles i e their images of the national within Europe into a new vertical profile i e an image of the European within the national The challenge has been especially demanding for European left wing parties which have been largely unable to forge a shared and recognizable social vision of the European Union Only during the COVID pandemic have the seeds of a novel communal consensus emerged that might prove capable of defeating the anti communal views of Eurosceptic ideologies and free market technocrats Personality and Belief

Gerard Magill,1994-11-08 Saul Bellow and the Struggle at the Center Eugene Hollahan,1996 Based upon the autumn 1984 issue of Studies in the Literary Imagination this volume retains some earlier essays and adds new examinations of the entire oeuvre of Bellow There are essays by recognized scholars as well as several by emerging Bellow scholars As a continuing examination of a living writer this collection will serve to address questions that the volume editor has determined are of most importance Eugene Hollahan has written wherever Bellow s philosophical development has led him we must look at his latest novel to discover that position The Cumulative Book Index ,1992 A world list of books in the English

injustice at its core is the domination of time Utopia has been one response to this domination The racially dominated are not free to define what counts as progress they are not free from the accumulation of past injustices and most importantly they are not free from the arbitrary organization of work in capitalist labor markets Racially unjust societies are forms of life where the justifications for how to organize time around life labor and leisure are out of the hands of the dominated In Race

Time and Utopia William Paris provides a theoretical account of utopia as the critical analysis of the sources of time domination and the struggle to create emancipatory forms of life Rather than focusing on inclusion and equality before the law as found in liberal theories of racial injustice Paris analyses the neglected utopian tradition of justice in black political thought that insists justice can only be secured through the transformation of society as a whole This transformation is nothing less than the democratic transformation of how organize and narrate our shared time Bringing into conversation the work W E B Du Bois Martin Delany Marcus Garvey Frantz Fanon and James Boggs with the critical theory of Karl Marx Ernst Bloch Rahel Jaeggi and Rainer Forst Paris reconstructs a social theory and normative account of forms of life as the struggle over how time will be organized asking Can there be freedom without a new order of time
