Crisis Of Islam:

The Crisis of Islam Bernard Lewis, 2003-03-25 In his first book since What Went Wrong Bernard Lewis examines the historical roots of the resentments that dominate the Islamic world today and that are increasingly being expressed in acts of terrorism He looks at the theological origins of political Islam and takes us through the rise of militant Islam in Iran Egypt and Saudi Arabia examining the impact of radical Wahhabi proselytizing and Saudi oil money on the rest of the Islamic world The Crisis of Islam ranges widely through thirteen centuries of history but in particular it charts the key events of the twentieth century leading up to the violent confrontations of today the creation of the state of Israel the Cold War the Iranian Revolution the Soviet defeat in Afghanistan the Gulf War and the September 11th attacks on the United States While hostility toward the West has a long and varied history in the lands of Islam its current concentration on America is new So too is the cult of the suicide bomber Brilliantly disentangling the crosscurrents of Middle Eastern history from the rhetoric of its manipulators Bernard Lewis helps us understand the reasons for the increasingly dogmatic rejection of modernity by many in the Muslim world in favor of a return to a sacred past Based on his George Polk Award winning article for The New Yorker The Crisis of Islam is essential reading for anyone who wants to know what Usama bin Ladin represents and why his murderous message resonates so widely in the Islamic world The Crisis of Islam Bernard Lewis, 2005 The Crisis in Islam Dr Abdul-Haq Al-Ani Author, 2016-03-14 In order to understand the current violence in the Arab Muslim world it is necessary to go back to its roots This book sets out to show that the roots of Islamic terror dates back to the day the Prophet died on which an Islamic State was set up Qur'anic Islam which declares that the Prophet was only sent as Mercy to all Mankind was from that day politicized misinterpreted and used as means and justification for invasion killing and pillage The book establishes relying on the Qur'an the fact that Islam was meant for the Arabs alone and thus there was no mission to spread it by the sword Muslims in general and clerics in particular must accept this Qur'anic fact and reread their history and accept it for its success and failures The only out of this quagmire is to acknowledge that some of the practices of the Guided Predecessors were un-Islamic and stop teaching them to young Muslims as the right path to follow Western Imperialists need to stop attacking Muslim land as they have been doing for two centuries if they genuinely want to avoid encouraging the recruitment by Muslim fundamentalists of young Muslims from among their citizens who see the invasion and subjugation of Muslim land by the West as an attack on their existence and identity Islam and the Crisis of the Modern World Muhammad Qutb, 1990 Islam and the Crisis of the Modern World, 1979 The Crisis of Muslim History Mahmoud M. Ayoub, 2014-10-01 This is a detailed yet accessible guide to the way in which religion and politics interacted during the earliest years of Islam It focuses on the period of the first four caliphs untangling the crisis of succession and the subsequent schism between the Sunni and Shi'i movements in Islam and drawing on a combination of primary documents and scholarship in the field It includes two appendices featuring original English translations of key source material

Crisis in the Muslim Mind AbdulHamid AbuSulayman, 2004-01-01 Across the Muslim world today if anything is self evident across the Muslim world today it is that the Ummah is badly in need of reform On this point it can be stated with confidence that Muslims are agreed Poverty and injustice characterize the face of Muslim lands from the Atlantic to the Pacific Pollution and corruption are the order of the day in the societies where the gulf between them and the developed countries of the world has never been wider Politics in the Muslim world are all too often the politics of deprivation and culture the culture of despair Crisis in the Muslim Mind examines the intellectual and historical roots of the malaise that has encompassed the Ummah and threatens to efface its identity First published in Arabic in 1991 this important work in an abridged English translation is designed to familiarize educated and concerned Muslims with the nature of the crisis confronting them and to suggest the steps necessary to overcome it

The Crisis of Islamic Civilization Ali A. Allawi, 2009 Islam as a religion is central to the lives of over a billion people but its outer expression as a distinctive civilization has been undergoing a monumental crisis Buffeted by powerful adverse currents Islamic civilization today is a shadow of its former self The most disturbing and possibly fatal of these currents the imperial expansion of the West into Muslim lands and the blast of modernity that accompanied it are now compounded by a third giant wave globalization These forces have increasingly tested Islam and Islamic civilization for validity adaptability and the ability to hold on to the loyalty of Muslims says Ali A Allawi in his provocative new book While the faith has proved resilient in the face of these challenges other aspects of Islamic civilization have atrophied or died Allawi contends and Islamic civilization is now undergoing its last crisis The book explores how Islamic civilization began to unravel under colonial rule as its institutions laws and economies were often replaced by inadequate modern equivalents Allawi also examines the backlash expressed through the increasing religiosity of Muslim societies and the spectacular rise of political Islam and its terrorist offshoots Assessing the status of each of the building blocks of Islamic civilization the author concludes that Islamic civilization cannot survive without the vital spirituality that underpinned it in the past He identifies a key set of principles for moving forward principles that will surprise some and anger others yet clearly must be considered

The Crisis of Muslim History Mahmoud Ayoub, 2003 The time between the death of the Prophet Mohammed and that of the caliph Ali known by Muslims as the age of the Rightly Guided caliphs was a formative period in Islamic history This balanced and sensitive study draws on a wide range of original sources to provide a scholarly yet highly readable account of the period exploring the delicate interplay between religion and politics and the roots of the conflict that led to the Crisis of Succession and the Sunni Shi'i schism

The Crisis Of Islam Suhail Saheed, 2010-09-01

Islamic Culture in Crisis Hichem Djait, 2011-12-31 Islamic Culture in Crisis examines efforts by intellectuals and leaders in the Islamic world to adapt to what Hichem Djait calls the incredible novelty of modernity that has come to Europe during the past 150 years The chapters in the work are grouped into three sections and were written by the author over a twenty year period Djait describes the different meanings of modernity the crisis of Islamic culture in its encounter with modernity similarities and differences between Arabs and Muslims and other cultures the politics of the Arabs and the force of democracy in the Islamic world In the sphere of politics the Arabs have been excluded from history for a very long time Instead Turks Mongols Berbers Persians and Caucasians have led the destinies of the Islamic world a domain that had become politically fragmented But history has overlooked the concrete developments of that time although they were full of consequences for the lives of the people Paradoxically what remains are the spiritual trans historic elements religion culture and science Contrasting the achievements of other civilizations both past and present Dja t demonstrates eloquently that Arabs and Muslims will not be able to connect with the modern world unless they are able to be inspired by a supreme ambition to further the causes of high culture in knowledge science art literature and other spheres Journey Into Islam Akbar S. Ahmed, 2007 An anthropological excursion into the Muslim world The struggle within Islam Tribes women and honor in the age of globalization Who is defining Islam after 9 11 and why The clash of civilizations Lifting the veil Epilogue the hope of the world Crisis and Memory in Islamic Societies Angelika Neuwirth, Andreas Pflitsch, 1998 God Created the Universe with the Purpose to Serve Humankind Fateh Ullah Khan, 2009 The Solution to the Muslim Crisis Faysal S. Burhan, 1996-09-01 Fall of Capitalism and Rise of Islam Mohammad Malkawi, 2010-04-22 The Fall of Capitalism and the Rise of Islam provides a critical analysis of the current financial crisis in the US and the world at large It concludes that the current crisis could very well be a sign of failure of the underlying system of capitalism The book shows that the system of capitalism contains serious faults and defects at the core theory level Economic and financial crisis periodically occur whenever these defects are triggered by various conditions and political decisions during the life of capitalism The collapse of financial institutions the crash of the housing market the evaporation of trillions of dollars the creation of virtual unreal wealth and the decline of productivity are symptoms of the potential failure of the ideology of capitalism This failure has serious impact on the life quality of billions of people around the world who suffer from poverty hunger health insecurity lack of education and serious inhuman conditions The world order under capitalism witnessed multiple world wars political and economic instability colonialism absence of peace deprivation of justice and polarization of wealth and power This book predicts a potential crash and collapse of the world order under the pressure of a failing capitalism Concurrent to the decline and potential collapse of capitalism the book makes an account of another global phenomenon namely the second rise of Islam The rise of Islam similar to the first one that lasted for thirteen hundred years is a comprehensive rise that brings up the economic system together with the political system and the moral system together with the legal system It is much needed and sought to introduce to the world a system full of justice fairness and geared toward productivity and human righteousness The new rise of Islam is argued to be in the best interest of the human societies around the world and that the propagated fear of this rise is unfounded The book provides a detailed description of the economic system and the political economy of Islam It provides compelling evidence that the Islamic political economy characterized by sustained productivity and wealth distribution guarantees the satisfaction of the basic needs of a human The Islamic political economy integrates several mechanisms for natural distribution of wealth while it maintains a high level of productivity through the inhibition of usury hoarding and exploitation The Fall of Capitalism and the Rise of Islam makes extensive references to a score of historians scholars and scientists who provide a fair testimony of the Islamic civilization and the ideology of Islam

Asian Spiritualities and Social Transformation Simon Shui-Man KWAN, Wai-Yin CHOW, 2023-10-17 This book offers a cross cultural and inter religious understanding of the ways social transformation in Asia is related to Asian spiritualities Bringing together scholars and practitioners from different cultures and fields of study it collates cutting edge research and applies it to the role of Asian spiritualities in social transformation Spirituality has garnered increasing attention in recent years across diverse fields of research and practice from psychology and healthcare to anthropology education sociology political sciences social work feminist studies cultural studies religious studies theology philosophy and so on However the term means different things within these different disciplines Spirituality can be understood to be private and personal but also public and societal not only as a force that brings about change but also one that helps maintain the status quo not only as a core element in religion but also as something disconnected from it This book poses that to gain a firm grasp of spirituality one needs to traverse these different terrains Disbarring the orientalist understanding of spirituality that is often found embedded in stereotypes of the East as mystical esoteric and spiritual in contrast to the West as scientific and rational this book deconstructs this binarism to enable a sophisticated understanding of the diversity within Eastern and Western spiritualities It presents Asian spirituality as a misnomer focusing on the plurality of spiritualities and the region's multifaceted religiosity and it also excavates interfaith terrains It is of interest to social scientists theologians and religious scholars and students and researchers interested in Asian spiritualities and social movements Crisis in the Muslim
