In the School of the Word Carlos Granados, Luis Sánchez-Navarro, 2021-07-26 Carlos Granados and Luis Sánchez Navarro propose reading the Bible with Christian faith not as one approach among many but as a disposition demanded by the New Testament for proper interpretation of both the Old and the New. Even so, the authors' faith never leads them to dismiss history or to discard the tools of the historical critical method. On the contrary, these sciences allow the faithful reader to take a holistic approach to biblical truth. When the reader also takes full account of the ecclesial reality in which the Bible was formed and transmitted and in which it must be read still today, he or she encounters the word proclaimed by the text. Indeed, the words of Holy Writ ultimately proclaim the Word Logos Jesus Christ in whose Spirit they were written. This book's thirteen essays are grouped into three parts. Part I, 'The Church: Living Subject of Sacred Scripture', takes up a foundational theme of the whole book: sacred Scripture calls for a reading within the community of the People of God under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the same People constitute the living subject of Scripture. In Part II, 'Christ: Exegete of the Fulfillment', the authors focus on the relationship between the two biblical testaments. They argue that the Christian can both respect and venerate the Old Testament on its own terms even as they find in Jesus as presented in the New Testament and encountered in faith the key for unlocking the Old Testament's deepest meaning. The third and final part of this book, 'The Teaching in Benedict XVI's Verbum Domini', examines Pope Benedict XVI's 2010 post-synodal apostolic exhortation on the word of God in the life and mission of the Church. The authors' years of shared prayer, study, conversation, and ministry have led to this coauthored book bearing witness to that ongoing unity that they live as confreres. Not surprisingly, they frequently reference the same theologians, especially Brevard Childs, Paul Beauchamp SJ, and Pope Benedict XVI.

Writing History in Late Antique Iberia Purificación Ubri, Rabaneda, 2025-10-01 This volume reflects on the motivations underpinning the writing of history in Late Antique Iberia, emphasising its theoretical and practical aspects and outlining the social, political, and ideological implications of the constructions and narrations of the past. The volume includes general topics related to the writing of history, such as the historiographical debates on writing history, the praxis of history writing, and the role of central and local powers in the construction of the past; the legitimacy of history; the exaltation of Christian history to the detriment of other religious beliefs; and the perception of time in hagiographical texts. Further points of interest in the volume are the specific studies on the historiographical culture. All these issues are analysed from an innovative perspective which combines traditional subjects with new historiographical topics, such as the configuration of historical discourse through another type of documentation like councils, hagiography, or legislation.

Finding A Woman's Place David L. Balch, Jason T. Lamoreaux, 2011-01-01 This stimulating collection of essays by prominent scholars honors Carolyn Osiek. The authors interpret early Christians in their social world and women in early Christianity with interpretations spanning the New Testament and early church documents The editors have brought together an international group of scholars The book includes both a comprehensive bibliography of Osiek's work as well as a brief introduction by the editors reflecting on their experiences with her during her career Contributors David Balch Jeremy W Barrier Terri Bednarz R S M Laurie Brink O P Warren Carter Adela Yarbro Collins Amy Jill Levine Margaret Y MacDonald Jason L Merritt Halvor Moxnes Barbara Reid O P David Rhoads Donald Senior C P Yancy W Smith Monotheism Between Pagans and Christians in Late Antiquity Stephen Mitchell, Peter Van Nuffelen, 2010 This volume studies how similarities between paganism and Christianity were obscured in the polemic that was waged by Christianity against paganism and in the pagan responses to it Mexico, from Mestizo to Multicultural Carrie C. Chorba, 2007 In Mexico the confluence of the 1992 Quincentennial commemoration of Columbus's voyages and the neo liberal sexenio or presidency of Carlos Salinas de Gortari spurred artistic creations that capture the decade like no other source does In the 1990s Mexican artists produced an inordinate number of works that revise and rewrite the events of the sixteenth century conquest and colonization These works and their relationship to indeed their mirroring of the intellectual and cultural atmosphere in Mexico during the Salinas presidency are of paramount importance if we are to understand the subtle but deep shifts within Mexico's national identity that took place at the end of the last century Throughout the twentieth century the post revolutionary Mexican State had used mestizaje as a symbol of national unity and social integration By the end of the millennium however Mexico had gone from a PRI dominated economically protectionist nation to a more democratic economically globalizing one More importantly the homogenizing mestizophile national identity that pervaded Mexico throughout the past century had given way to official admission of Mexico's ethnic and linguistic diversity or pluriculture according to President Salinas's 1992 constitutional revision This book is the first interdisciplinary study of literary cinematic and graphic images of Mexican national identity in the 1980s and 90s Discussing in depth writings films and cartoons from a vast array of contemporary sources Carrie C Chorba creates a social history of this important shift
