Critical Convergences:

Critical Theory and Performance Janelle G. Reinelt, Joseph R. Roach, 2007 Updated and enlarged this groundbreaking collection surveys the major critical currents and approaches in drama theater and performance The Woman Babylon and the Marks of Empire Shanell T. Smith, 2014 Criticizes the use of gendered metaphors Babylon as a tortured woman which the author asserts reflect an inescapably androcentric even misogynistic perspective The author seeks to dismantle the either/or dichotomy within the Great Whore debate by bringing the categories of race ethnicity and class to bear on John s metaphors

Homicide, Race, and Justice in the American West, 1880-1920 Clare V. McKanna, 2022-05-10 In a chilling scene in the film Unforgiven Clint Eastwood as the gunman stands over a wounded Gene Hackman the sheriff aiming a rifle at his head I don t deserve this to die like this says Hackman Eastwood replies Deserve s got nothing to do with it cocks his rifle and fires point blank at his helpless victim This scenario dramatically brings home to the viewer what historians have long debated and hundreds of other films and books suggest the turn of the century West was a violent time and place Ranchers miners deputy sheriffs teenagers and old men occasionally even housewives and mothers found themselves at the business end of a shotgun or a 38 revolver Yet since western historians tend to portray violence as essentially episodic frontier gunfights range wars vigilante movements and the like solid data has been hard to come by As a beginning point for actually measuring lethal violence and assessing the administration of justice here at last is a detailed and well documented study of homicide in the American West Comparing data from representative areas Douglas County Nebraska Las Animas County Colorado and Gila County Arizona this book reveals a level of violence far greater than many historians have believed even surpassing eastern cities like New York and Boston Clashing cultures and transient populations a boomtown mentality easy availability of alcohol and firearms these and many other factors come under scrutiny as catalysts in the violence that permeated the region By comparing homicide data including coroner s inquests indictments plea bargains and sentences across both racial and regional lines the book also offers persuasive evidence that criminal justice systems of the Old West were weighted heavily in favor of defendants who were white and against those who were African American Native American or Mexican Packed with information this is a book for students and scholars of western history social history criminology and justice studies Western history buffs will be captivated by colorful anecdotes about the real West where guns could and did blaze over anything from love trysts to vendettas to too much foam on the beer From whatever perspective all readers are sure to find here a well constructed framework for understanding the West as it was and for interpreting the region as it moves into the future

Convergence ,1980 Ford Madox Ford, France and Provence Dominique Lemarchal, Claire Davison-Pégon, 2011-05 The controversial British writer Ford Madox Ford 1873 1939 is increasingly recognized as a major presence in early twentieth century literature This series of International Ford Madox Ford Studies was founded to reflect the recent resurgence of interest in him Each volume is based upon a particular theme or issue and relates aspects of Ford s

work life and contacts to broader concerns of his time Ford is best known for his fiction especially The Good Soldier long considered a modernist masterpiece and Parade's End which Anthony Burgess described as the finest novel about the First World War and Samuel Hynes has called the greatest war novel ever written by an Englishman After the war Ford moved to France beginning Parade's End on the Riviera founding the transatlantic review in Paris taking on Hemingway as a sub editor discovering another generation of Modernists such as Jean Rhys and Basil Bunting and publishing them alongside James Joyce and Gertrude Stein From the late 1920s he spent more time in his beloved Provence where he took a house with the painter Janice Biala The present volume combining contributions from eighteen British French and American experts on Ford and Modernism has two connected sections The first on Ford's engagement with France and French culture is introduced by an essay by Ford himself written in French about France and republished and also translated here for the first time and includes an essay on literary Paris of the 1920s by the leading biographer Hermione Lee The second on Ford and Provence is introduced in an essay by the novelist Julian Barnes and includes a selection of previously unpublished letters from Janice Biala about her life with Ford in Provence The volume also contains 16 pages of illustrations including previously unseen photographs of Ford and Biala and reproductions of Biala's paintings and drawings of Provence
