Messent, 1981      Zadie Smith Tracey Lorraine Walters, 2008 Zadie Smith Critical Essays is a timely collection of critical articles examining how Zadie Smith's novels and short stories interrogate race postcolonialism and identity. Essays explore the various ways Smith approaches issues of race either by deconstructing notions of race or interrogating the complexity of biracial identity and how Smith takes on contemporary debates concerning notions of Britishness, Englishness and Black Britishness. Some essays also consider the shifting identities adopted by those who identify with both British and West Indian South Asian or East Asian ancestry. Other essays explore Smith's contemporary postcolonial approach to Britain's colonial legacy and the difference between how immigrants and first generation British born children deal with cultural alienation and displacement. This thought provoking collection is a much needed critical tool for students and researchers in both contemporary British literature and Diasporic literature and culture.
