

Critical Theories

- Functionalists have a view of education that seems optimistic and unrealistic to many sociologists. Marxists view the education system as being a form of mind control. Neither picture is entirely satisfactory. Sociologists have therefore looked at other ways of explaining how education works. These other theories are known as critical theories because they criticize society and attempt to change society itself and to examine how people look at the world. They include
 - Neo-Marxism
 - Post Modernism
 - Feminism
