reliable introduction to a vast challenging area of inquiry Materials include newly commissioned articles along with essays drawn from The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism known as the definitive resource for students and scholars of literary theory and for philosophical reflection on literature and culture Duras, Writing, and the Ethical Martin Crowley, 2000 Careful textual analysis shows the particular fragile nature of this engagement as well as the intricate textures of Duras's work this leads to a striking new model of the relation between the literary text and the ethical life of its readers which will be of importance not only to specialists in French Studies but to all those interested in ethical criticism and modern literary studies BOOK JACKET The Routledge Dictionary of Literary Terms Peter Childs, Roger Fowler, 2006 Covering both established terminology as well as the specialist vocabulary of modern theoretical schools this is an indispensable guide to the principal terms and concepts encountered in debates over literary studies in the twenty first century Vigilant Memory R. Clifton Spargo, 2006-09 Vigilant Memory focuses on the particular role of Emmanuel Levinas's thought in reasserting the ethical parameters for poststructuralist criticism in the aftermath of the Holocaust More than simply situating Levinas's ethics within the larger context of his philosophy R Clifton Spargo offers a new explanation of its significance in relation to history In critical readings of the limits and also the heretofore untapped possibilities of Levinasian ethics Spargo explores the impact of the Holocaust on Levinas's various figures of injustice while examining the place of mourning the bad conscience the victim and the stranger neighbor as they appear in Levinas's work Ultimately Spargo ranges beyond Levinas's explicit philosophical or implicit political positions to calculate the necessary function of the memory of injustice in our cultural and political discourses on the characteristics of a just society In this original and magisterial study Spargo uses Levinas's work to approach our understanding of the suffering and death of others and in doing so reintroduces an essential ethical element to the reading of literature culture and everyday life Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Julian Walfreys, 2017-03-14 This book is an invaluable reference guide for students of literary and cultural studies which introduces over forty of the complex terms motifs and concepts in literary and cultural theory today Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Gives students a brief introduction to each concept together with short quotations from the work of key thinkers and critics to stimulate discussion and guide genuine comprehension Supplies helpful glosses and annotations for each term concept or keyword which is discussed Offers reflective practical questions at the end of each entry to direct the student to consider a particular aspect of the quotations and the concept they address Provides explanatory notes and bibliographies to aid further research This essential volume is ideal as both a dip in reference book and a guide to literary theory for practical classroom use Cumulated Index to the Books, 1999 Ethics in Culture Astrid Erll, Herbert Grabes, Ansgar Nünning, 2008 Alongside the recent cultural turn in the humanities there has been a noticeable return to ethical considerations With regard to literature as well as other media this has rekindled awareness of a tension antagonism or even disparity between ethics and aesthetics This volume of articles takes a more systematic and cross disciplinary approach to the widely mooted ethical turn in literature and other media than has been pursued so far It brings together a wide range of critical perspectives from literary studies media and cultural memory studies and philosophy tracing the complex and sometimes conflicting relationship between ethics and aesthetics in theoretical contexts and individual case studies as diverse as colonial architecture nineteenth century literary histories and postmodern writing and art

Postmodern Politics of Time Mitchum Huehls contends that conventional treatments of time's relationship to politics are limited by a focus on real world experiences of time By contrast the innovative literary forms developed by authors in direct response to political events such as the Cold War globalization the emergence of identity politics and 9 11 offer readers uniquely literary experiences of time And it is in these literary experiences of time that Qualified Hope identifies more complicated and thus more productive ways to think about the time politics relationship Qualified Hope challenges the conventional characterization of postmodernism as a period in which authors reject time in favor of space as the primary category for organizing experience and knowledge And by identifying a common commitment to time at the heart of postmodern literature Huehls suggests that the period defining divide between multiculturalism and theory is not as stark as previously thought
