Critical Models Theodor W. Adorno, 2005 Critical Models combines two of Adorno's most important postwar works Interventions and Catchwords and addresses issues such as the dangers of ideological conformity the fragility of democracy educational reform the influence of television and radio and the aftermath and continuity of racism Education and Thinking in Continental Philosophy Itay Snir, 2020-09-28 This book draws on five philosophers from the continental tradition Theodor Adorno Hannah Arendt Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida and Jacques Rancière in order to think about thinking and offer new and surprising answers to the question How can we educate students to think creatively and critically Despite their differences all of these philosophers challenge the modern understanding of thinking and offer original radical perspectives on it In very different ways each rejects the modern approach to thinking as well as the reduction of proper thought to rationality situating thinking in sociohistorical reality and relating it to political action Thinking they argue is not a natural automatic activity and the need to think has become all the more important as political reality seems to exhibit less thinking or to even celebrate thoughtlessness Bringing these continental conceptions of thinking to bear on the urgent need to educate young people to think against the current this book makes a significant contribution to educational theory and political philosophy one that is particularly relevant in today's anti intellectual climate A Companion to Adorno Peter E. contemporary cultural criticism social theory German history and aesthetics      Adorno, Politics, and the Aesthetic Animal Caleb J. Basnett, 2021-07-30 Built upon the principle that divides and elevates humans above other animals humanism is the cornerstone of a worldview that sanctifies inequality and threatens all animal life Adorno Politics and the Aesthetic Animal analyses this state of affairs and suggests an alternative a way for humanity to make itself into a new kind of animal Theodor W Adorno has been accused of leading critical theory into a blind alley divorced from practical social and political concerns In Adorno Politics and the Aesthetic Animal Caleb J Basnett argues that by placing the problem of the human animal distinction at the centre of Adorno's thought we discover a new Adorno one whose critique of domination is in dialogue with classic concerns of political thought forged by Aristotle including questions of humanist political education and the role of art Through a close reading of primary sources Basnett identifies the principal conceptual structure entwined with the understanding of human life as antagonistic to other animals and outlines how forms of aesthetic experience disrupt this problematic concept in favour of a reconceptualization of what we call human His analysis displaces the centrality of the human and attempts to open up a space for its transformation both in terms of how humans relate to each other and in how humans relate to other animals      Global Economic Crisis as Social Hieroglyphic Christos Memos, 2021-04-14 This book examines the 2008 global economic crisis as a complex social phenomenon or social hieroglyphic arguing that the crisis is not fundamentally economic despite presenting itself as such Instead it is considered to be a symptom of a long standing multifaceted and endemic crisis of capitalism which has effectively become permanent leading contemporary capitalist societies into a state of social regression manifest in new forms of barbarism The author offers a qualitative understanding of the economic crisis as the perversion or inversion of the capitalistically organized social relations The genesis of the current crisis is traced back to the unresolved world crisis surrounding the Great Depression in order to map the course and different inverted forms of the continuous global crisis of capitalism and to reveal their inner connections as derivative of the same social constitution From a historical and interdisciplinary perspective the book expounds critical social theory elaborating on the intersection between the early critical theory of the Frankfurt School mainly Adorno Horkheimer and Marcuse and the social form analysis of the Open Marxism school Global Economic Crisis as Social Hieroglyphic critically addresses the permanent character of the 1920s 1930s crisis and the crisis theory debates the political crisis in Eastern Europe 1953 1968 the crisis of Keynesianism the crisis of subversive reason the crisis negative anthropology and transformations of the bourgeois individual the state of social regression and the destructive tendencies after the rise of neoliberalism and finally the 2008 financial crisis and its ongoing aftermath      Comptes Rendus Philosophiques ,2007      Dimensions ,1996      New Essays on the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory Alfred J. The Journal of Philosophy ,2000      Auslegung ,2000      Adorno's Aesthetics of Critique Shea Coulson,2007 Adorno s Aesthetics of Critique examines Theodor Adorno s mode of critique from the perspective of his aesthetics This has two purposes The first purpose is to determine the effect of the primary importance Adorno places on aesthetics in his philosophy as a whole and to determine how this primacy influences the way in which he reads the philosophical tradition The second purpose is to understand the role of aesthetics in critical thinking generally and to reinvigorate Adorno s understanding of the subjective and objective dimensions of critique The ultimate aim is to promote new interpretations of Adorno and to reassert his relevance for constructing effective modes of critical thinking The book proceeds through four main chapters that focus on four different dimensions of Adorno s thought knowledge history culture and art The first chapter uses Adorno s aesthetic theory to re read his interpretation of Kant s subject object dynamic This grounds the second chapter on history which proceeds through an analysis of Adorno s reading of Hegel The third chapter uses the philosophical grounding of the first two to explore how knowledge and history interact within society as fundamental dimensions of culture The scope and meaning of culture and its relevance for critique form the primary focus of this chapter The fourth chapter turns to art to highlight the relationship between the critical and artistic dimensions of aesthetics in order to facilitate a dialogue between them This serves the purpose of asserting and outlining the relevance of aesthetics for critical thought in the humanities and social sciences which forms the crux of the book
