Critical Theory Of Religion A Feminist Analysis:

Critical Theory of Religion Marsha Hewitt,1995-01-01 This volume brings together in an exciting and original way the major themes of critical social theory and feminist theology Marsha Aileen Hewitt shows how critical themes emerge in the works of Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza Mary Daly and Rosemary Radford Ruether and how their work provides a starting point for a feminist critical theory of religion

Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular Mathieu E. Courville,2011-10-20 Edward Said s Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said s work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said s own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said s work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said s use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said s work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it

Critical Theology Carl A. Raschke,2016-07-08 One hundred years after Karl Barth launched crisis theology in response to the First World War Carl Raschke proposes a critical theology in response to our global political and economic crisis which takes up insights from the critical theory of the Frankfurt School and the new critical theory of Zizek and Badiou

Redemptive Memory Fran Leeper Buss,2024-11-12 This powerful last work by pioneering oral historian Fran Leeper Buss examines how painful memories of traumatic experiences can be transformed into positive action for social good In her more than 40 years gathering the life stories of working class women Buss found commonalities in the ways in which her subjects faced structural inequalities of race class and gender as well as sufferings caused by poverty child abuse gun violence and war Some of these women subsequently went on to become participants and leaders in a variety of movements for social change In this wide ranging book Buss shows how her subjects employed storytelling art spirituality and other methods to create sense and meaning from traumatic memories and then make positive contributions to movements for labor rights sanctuary for Central American refugees gun violence prevention peace and other causes Buss also relates her own story of medical malpractice and disability and discusses the work of historical and contemporary thinkers on the concepts underlying her ideas She provides unique and original insights into how women who have endured great trauma are able to redeem their memories through communal action for a better world

The Routledge Handbook of Postsecularity Justin Beaumont,2018-10-26 The Routledge Handbook of Postsecularity offers an internationally significant and comprehensive interdisciplinary collection which provides a series of critical reviews of the current state of the art and future trends in philosophical theoretical and conceptual terms The volume likewise presents a range of empirical knowledges and engagements with postsecularity A critical yet sympathetic dialogue across disciplinary divides in an international context ensures that the volume covers a wide and interrelated intellectual and geographical scope The editor s introduction with Klaus Eder offers a robust foundation for the volume setting out the central aims and objectives the rationale for the contributions and an outline of the structure Thorny issues of normativity and empirical challenges are highlighted for the reader The handbook comprises four interrelated sections Part I Philosophical meditations discusses postsecularity from philosophical standpoints and Part II Theological perspectives presents contributions from a variety of theological viewpoints Part III Theory space social relations contains pieces from geography planning sociology and religious studies that delve into theoretically informed empirical implications of postsecularity Part IV Political and social engagement offers chapters that emphasize the political and social implications of the debate In the Afterword Eduardo Mendieta joins the editor to reflect on the notion of reflexive secularization across the volume as a whole alluding to new lines of inquiry The handbook is an invaluable guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching and a key reference for students and scholars of human geography sociology political science applied philosophy urban and public theology planning and urban studies

Eight Theories of Religion Daniel L. Pals, 2006 Why do human beings believe in divinities Why do some seek eternal life while others seek escape from recurring lives Why do the beliefs and behaviors we typically call religious so deeply affect the human personality and so subtly weave their way through human society Revised and updated in this second edition Eight Theories of Religion considers how these fundamental questions have engaged the most important thinkers of the modern era Accessible systematic and succinct the text examines the classic interpretations of religion advanced by theorists who have left a major imprint on the intellectual culture of the twentieth century The second edition features a new chapter on Max Weber a revised introduction and a revised expanded conclusion that traces the paths of further inquiry and interpretation traveled by theorists in the most recent decades Eight Theories of Religion Second Edition begins with Edward Burnett Tylor and James Frazer two Victorian pioneers in anthropology and the comparative study of religion It then considers the great reductionist approaches of Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim and Karl Marx all of whom have exercised wide influence up to the present day The discussion goes on to examine the leading challenges to reductionism as articulated by sociologist Max Weber new to this edition and Romanian American comparativist Mircea Eliade Finally it explores the newer methods and ideas arising from the African field studies of ethnographer E E Evans Pritchard and the interpretive anthropology of Clifford Geertz Each chapter offers biographical background theoretical exposition conceptual analysis and critical assessment This common format allows for close comparison and careful evaluation throughout Ideal for use as a supplementary text in introductory religion courses or as the central text in sociology of religion and courses centered on the explanation and interpretation of religion Eight Theories of Religion Second Edition offers an illuminating treatment of this controversial and fascinating subject
