Crossing the Threshold Nicholas Wijnberg, Philip Martyn, 2003 Based on the Work of Rudolf Steiner When faced with the prospect of death our own or someone else s there is often little time to prepare This book presents a wealth of practical and spiritual guidance on all aspects of death and dying Writing from the perspective of Rudolf Steiner s spiritual philosophy the authors suggest ways of coping with the time leading up to death and also the period afterwards They examine different circumstances of death and offer advice on practical questions such as the arrangement of funerals laying out of the body legal requirements and wills They also suggest how those who remain on earth can continue to relate to the departed souls of the deceased

The Call to the Far Shore Nancy MacMillan, 2025-04-08 Explores how to carry our loved ones through death how to honor their bodies and spirits and how to awaken to the ever present help of our ancestors Reveals the healing and closure that can be brought about through the process of washing and preparing a body for a home vigil or funeral Offers guidance on advance care planning grieving and forgiveness as well as green burial Having become disconnected from the natural cycles of life we have lost the fundamental knowing of what death looks like and fear fills the void How can we transform our fears surrounding death and be with the dying more fully and more consciously Through her work with the dying Nancy MacMillan reveals the very real imaginal world where nature myth dreams ancestors and those yet to be born whisper from the far shore a place beyond our last breath She reminds us that caring for our dying consciously is a transformative act radical even in restoring meaning to our place and purpose in the universe She explores how to carry our loved ones through death how to honor their bodies and spirits and how to awaken to the ever present help of our ancestors She shows how the practice of caring for the dead can help both those grieving and the newly dead and she reveals how healing and closure can be brought about through the process of washing and preparing a body for a home vigil or funeral a ritual she provided for her own mother Sharing personal stories Nancy offers guidance on advance care planning grieving and forgiveness as well as green burial Through her own close encounters with the specter of death the author shows how to follow the ancient wisdom of learning to die before you die and find a seaworthy passage to the far shore

Nelson,2009-02-17 Over a century ago psychologists who were fascinated with religion began to study and write about it Theologians and religious practitioners have responded to this literature producing a fascinating dialogue that deals with our fundamental und standings about the human person and our place in the world This book provides an introduction to the important conversations that have developed out of these interchanges The dialogue between psychology and religion is difficult to study for a number of reasons First it requires knowledge of both psychology and religion People with a background in psychology often lack a solid understanding of the religious traditions they wish to study and theologians may not be up to date on the latest developments in psychology Second it requires conceptual tools to organize the material and understand the basic problems involved in any attempt to connect the science of psychology with religion These concepts can be found in many places for instance in the writings of philosophers of science but they are complex and often hard to follow for those without a proper theological and philosophical ba ground Finally authors who write on the topic come to the study of psychology and religion from a variety of academic and personal backgrounds This makes for wonderful diversity in conversations but it makes understanding and mastery of the material quite difficult Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1999-04 Clinical Geriatric Neurology Laurie Barclay,1993 This text aims to establish the principles of geriatric neurology and to provide an approach to neurological disorders in the older patient in a single volume It aims to comprehensively address the complex issues of neurological evaluation diagnosis and management The Homiletic Review ,1908 The Nation and Athenaeum ,1922 The Literary Guide and Rationalist Review ,1925 Books Out Loud ,2004 Origins ,1998 The Medium and Daybreak ,1876
