New Voices, New Visions Catriona Elder, Keith Moore, 2012-03-15 New Voices New

Visions brings together a collection of papers that engage with the ideas of nation identity and place The title New Voices

New Visions harks back to earlier scholarship that endeavoured to explore these issues It therefore makes links between old and new stories of Australian identity tracing the continuities shifts and changes in how Australia is imagined The collection is deliberately interdisciplinary gathering work by historians literary and film scholars communication and cultural theorists political scientists and sociologists This mixed perspectives enables the reader to trace ideas concepts and theories across a range of disciplines and understand the distinctive ways in which different disciplines engage with ideas of nation space and

Australian identity The book is written in an engaging and accessible manner making it an excellent text for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of Australian Studies It will be especially useful for the growing number of students living outside Australia who engage with Australian literature and culture The book provides a range of topics that introduces students to key issues and concepts It also situates these ideas in historical context New Voices New Visions engages with key contemporary issues in everyday Australian life environment and climate change immigration consumerism travel and cities It explores these various topics by considering case studies both contemporary and historical For example the issue of attitudes to Asia are analysed through art the topic of national symbols through the case of the crocodile approaches to immigration via a popular reality television programme The contributors to this book comprise some of the foremost Australian scholars as well as emerging scholars This combination ensures a depth of knowledge but also a vibrancy The editors are experienced scholars whose knowledge of the field is broad and they have brought a coherence to the material ensuring a strong narrative for the reader Pacific Conservation Biology ,2005 Physiological and Ecological Adaptations to Feeding in Vertebrates J. Matthias Starck,Tobias Wang,2005 Responding to recent interest in the gastrointestinal tract as a model for studies in physiological and ecological adaptation to fluctuating environmental conditions this collection summarizes the current state of knowledge from an integrative perspective The contributors come from the fields of comparative morphology nutritional physiology eco Journal of Vertebrate Paleontology ,2010 Gondwana Research ,2005 The Journal of Experimental Biology ,2007 Arquivos do Museu Nacional Museu Nacional (Brazil),2008 Grzimek's Animal Life Encyclopedia Bernhard Grzimek,2003 Turtles and tortoises to lizards and snakes Reptiles James B.
