Stabb, 2014-05-23 Political social and aesthetic change marked Latin American society in the years between 1960 and 1985 In this book Martin Stabb explores how these changes made their way into the essayistic writings of twenty six Spanish American intellectuals Stabb posits that dissent against ideology against simplistic notions of technological progress against urban values and even against the direct linear expository style of the essay itself characterizes the work of these contemporary essayists He draws his examples from major canonical figures including Paz Vargas Llosa Fuentes and Cort zar and from lesser known writers who merit a wider readership such as Monterroso Zaid Edwards and Ibarg engoitia This exploration overturns many conventional assumptions about Latin American intellectuals and also highlights some of the other achievements of authors famous primarily for novels or short stories Arts of Address Monigue Roelofs, 2020-01-21 Modes of address are forms of signification that we direct at living beings things and places and they at us and at each other Seeing is a form of address So are speaking singing and painting Initiating or responding to such calls we participate in encounters with the world Widely used yet less often examined in its own right the notion of address cries out for analysis Monique Roelofs offers a pathbreaking systematic model of the field of address and puts it to work in the arts critical theory and social life She shows how address props up finely hewn modalities of relationality agency and normativity Address exceeds a one on one pairing of cultural productions with their audiences As ardently energizing tiny slippages and snippets as fueling larger impulses in the society it activates and reaestheticizes registers of race gender class coloniality and cosmopolitanism In readings of writers and artists ranging from Julio Cort zar to Jamaica Kincaid and from Martha Rosler to Pope L Roelofs demonstrates the centrality of address to freedom and a critical political aesthetics Under the banner of a unified concept of address Hume Kant and Foucault strike up conversations with Benjamin Barthes Althusser Fanon Anzald a and Butler Drawing on a wide array of artistic and theoretical sources and challenging disciplinary boundaries the book illuminates address s significance to cultural existence and to our reflexive aesthetic engagement in it Keeping the reader on the lookout for flash fiction that pops up out of nowhere and for insurgent whisperings that take to the air Arts of Address explores the aliveness of being alive The Big Book of Modern Fantasy Ann Vandermeer, Jeff VanderMeer, 2020-07-21 WORLD FANTASY AWARD WINNER A true horde of fantasy tales sure to delight fans scholars and even the greediest of dragons from bestselling authors Ann and Jeff VanderMeer Step through a shimmering portal a worn wardrobe door a schism in sky into a bold new age of fantasy When worlds beyond worlds became a genre unto itself From the swinging sixties to the strange strange seventies the over the top eighties to the gnarly nineties and beyond into the twenty first century the VanderMeers have found the stories and the writers from around the world that reinvented and revitalized the fantasy genre after World War II The stories in this collection represent twenty two different countries including Russia Argentina Nigeria Columbia Pakistan Turkey Finland Sweden China the Philippines and the Czech Republic Five have never before been translated into English From Jorge Luis Borges to Ursula K Le Guin Michael Moorcock to Angela Carter Terry Pratchett to Stephen King the full range and glory of the fantastic are on display in these ninety one stories in which dragons soar giants stomp and human children should still think twice about venturing alone into the dark forest Completing Ann and Jeff VanderMeer's definitive The Big Book of Classic Fantasy this companion volume to takes the genre into the twenty first
