Cross Cultural Perspectives On Youth And Violence:

Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Youth and Violence Meredith W. Watts,1998-10-16 This volume contains contributions from scholars concerned with cross cultural perspectives on youth and violence The chapters range from theoretical examinations of violence related attitudes among American youth to bullying in German and Japanese schools to problems of urban youth in Brazil      Globalizing the Streets Fabiola Salek,David C. Brotherton,2008-06-24 Not since the 1960s have the activities of resistance among lower and working class youth caused such anxiety in the international community Yet today the dispossessed are responding to the challenges of globalization and its methods of social control The contributors to this volume examine the struggle for identity and interdependence of these youth their clashes with law enforcement and criminal codes their fight for social political and cultural capital and their efforts to achieve recognition and empowerment Essays adopt the vantage point of those whose struggle for social solidarity self respect and survival in criminalized or marginalized spaces In doing so they contextualize and humanize the seemingly senseless actions of these youths who make visible the class contradictions social exclusion and rituals of psychological humiliation that permeate their everyday lives

Preventing and Reducing Juvenile Delinquency James C. Howell,2009 This book informs readers about the latest research and the most promising and effective programmes for understanding preventing and controlling juvenile delinquency      Altruism in Cross-Cultural Perspective Douglas A. Vakoch,2013-05-16 Altruism in Cross Cultural

Perspective provides such a scholarly overview examining the intersection of culture and such topics as evolutionary accounts of altruism and the importance of altruism in ritual and religion The past decade has seen a proliferation of research on altruism made possible in part by significant funding from organizations such as the John Templeton Foundation While significant research has been conducted on biological social and individual dimensions of altruism there has been no attempt to provide an overview of the ways that altruistic behavior and attitudes vary across cultures The book addresses the methodological challenges of researching altruism across cultures as well as the ways that altruism is manifest in difficult circumstances A particular strength of the book is its attention to multiple disciplinary approaches to understanding altruism with contributors from fields including psychology anthropology sociology biology communication philosophy religious studies gender studies and bioethics      Cross Cultural Perspectives in Social Work Practice and Education Marta

Sotomayor,1976      The Cambridge Handbook of Violent Behavior and Aggression Daniel J. Flannery,Alexander T. Vazsonyi,Irwin D. Waldman,2007-09-03 From a team of leading experts comes a comprehensive multidisciplinary examination of the most current research including the complex issue of violence and violent behavior The handbook examines a range of theoretical policy and research issues and provides a comprehensive overview of aggressive and violent behavior The breadth of coverage is impressive ranging from research on biological factors related to violence and behavior genetics to research on terrorism and the impact of violence in different cultures The authors examine violence from international cross cultural perspectives with chapters that examine both quantitative and qualitative research They also look at violence at multiple levels individual family neighborhood cultural and across multiple perspectives and systems including treatment justice education and public health Cultures, Communities, Competence, and Change Forrest B.

Tyler,2013-04-17 Cultures Communities Competence and Change provides a transcultural psychosocial conception of the nature of individual and social activity The author presents an integrated view of how people develop a psychosocially based awareness of themselves and their milieus to shape what he refers to as their internested social systems In so doing he challenges current deficit prevention emphases in the helping disciplines and promotes a constructive prosocial model of individual and social approaches to change Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Violence in Schools Florence Denmark,Uwe Gielen,Herbert H.
