Crossing Over Narratives Of Palliative Care:

Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna M. Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2000-03-02 Crossing Over provides a unique view of patients families and their caregivers striving together to maintain comfort and hope in the face of incurable illness The narratives weave together emotions physical symptoms spiritual concerns and the stresses of family life as well as the professional and personal challenges of providing hospice and palliative care Based on a vast amount of participant observation and in depth interviews Crossing Over moves far beyond dry technical manuals for symptom control and tired clichés about death with dignity to depict the sights sounds tastes and smells of the daily in patients homes and the palliative care unit It captures the breathtaking diversity of people's aspirations and ideals as they face death and the views of the professionals who care for them Anger and fear tenderness and reconciliation jealousy and love social support and falling through the cracks unexpected courage and unshakable faith all of these are part of facing death in late twentieth century North America and this book brings them to life in an extraordinary portrait of the processes of giving and receiving palliative care

Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2023 The revised edition of Crossing Over is a book of stories narratives of giving and receiving palliative care in the context of end of life It is not a textbook that portrays ideal palliative care or that prescribes specific management techniques Instead it presents stories of actual patients and families who have experienced terminal illness with the support of hospice or palliative care teams The narratives are derived from a three year qualitative ethnographic study of the experiences of patients families and caregivers

Crossing Over David Barnard, 2000 Crossing Over David Barnard, Anna Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou, 2023 The revised edition of Crossing Over is a book of stories narratives of giving and receiving palliative care in the context of end of life It is not a textbook that portrays ideal palliative care or that prescribes specific management techniques Instead it presents stories of actual patients and families who have experienced terminal illness with the support of hospice or palliative care teams The narratives are derived from a three year qualitative ethnographic study of the experiences of patients families and caregivers

Crossing Over, 2000 This volume presents a series of case narratives following individual patients and families throughout the course of illness and death in the context of hospice and palliative care

Transforming the Culture of Dying David Clark, 2013-06-13 Transforming the Culture of Dying assesses the establishment of the Project on Death in America and evaluates its contributions to the development of the palliative care field and end of life care in American society

Narrative and Stories in Health Care Yasmin Gunaratnam, David Oliviere, 2009-04-09 The use of narrative methods has a long history in palliative care pioneered by Dame Cicely Saunders founder of the modern hospice movement Narrative and Stories in Health Care provides a vibrant multidisciplinary examination of work with narrative and stories in contemporary health and social care with a focus on the care of people who are ill and dying It animates the academic literature with provocative real world examples from international contributors including palliative care service users and those working in the social and human sciences medicine theology and the creative arts Narrative and Stories in Health Care addresses and clarifies core issues What is a narrative What is a story What are some of the main methods and models that can be used and for what purposes What practical and ethical dilemmas can the methods entail in work with illness death and dying As well as highlighting the power of stories to create new possibilities the book also acknowledges the conceptual methodological and ethnical problems and challenges inherent in narrative work As the hospice and palliative care movement evolves to meet the challenges of 21st century health care this fascinating book highlights how narratives and stories can be attended to in ways that are productive ethical and caring

The Renewal of Generosity Arthur W. Frank, 2009-11-19 Contemporary health care often lacks generosity of spirit even when treatment is most efficient Too many patients are left unhappy with how they are treated and too many medical professionals feel estranged from the calling that drew them to medicine Arthur W Frank tells the stories of ill people doctors and nurses who are restoring generosity to medicine generosity toward others and to themselves The Renewal of Generosity evokes medicine as the face to face encounter that comes before and after diagnostics pharmaceuticals and surgeries Frank calls upon the Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius philosopher Emmanuel Levinas and literary critic Mikhail Bakhtin to reflect on stories of ill people doctors and nurses who transform demoralized medicine into caring relationships He presents their stories as a source of consolation for both ill and professional alike and as an impetus to changing medical systems Frank shows how generosity is being renewed through dialogue that is more than the exchange of information Dialogue is an ethic and an ideal for people on both sides of the medical encounter who want to offer more to those they meet and who want their own lives enriched in the process The Renewal of Generosity views illness and medical work with grace and compassion making an invaluable contribution to expanding our vision of suffering and healing

The New Testament and Bioethics R. Dennis Macaleer, 2014-01-01 Beauchamp and Childress's Principles of Biomedical Ethics is a well accepted approach to contemporary bioethics Those principles are based on what Beauchamp and Childress call the common morality This book employs New Testament theological themes to enhance the meaning of those principles of bioethics The primary New Testament text for this study is the twin commands from Jesus to love God and love one's neighbor The three theological themes developed from this study the image of God the covenant and the pursuit of healing are deeply embedded in the New Testament and in the ministry of Jesus Three contemporary bioethics principles are used for this dissertation based on The Belmont Report They are the principles of respect for persons justice and beneficence In each case the theological themes are shown to enhance the meaning of these bioethics principles Each of the three principles as understood through the three theological themes is applied to a current bioethics issue to demonstrate the efficacy of this approach The three current issues addressed are the withdrawal or withholding of life sustaining treatment the distribution of health care in the United States and the use of palliative care

Narrative Research in Health and Illness Brian Hurwitz, Trisha Greenhalgh, Vieda

Skultans,2008-04-15 This comprehensive book celebrates the coming of age of narrative in health care. It uses narrative to go beyond the patient's story and address social, cultural, ethical, psychological, organizational, and linguistic issues. This book has been written to help health professionals and social scientists to use narrative more effectively in their everyday work and writing. The book is split into three comprehensive sections: Narratives, Counter narratives, and Meta narratives. Teaching

Death and Dying Christopher M Moreman,2008-10-03 The academic study of death rose to prominence during the 1960s. Courses on some aspect of death and dying can now be found at most institutions of higher learning. These courses tend to stress the psycho-social aspects of grief and bereavement, however, ignoring the religious elements inherent to the subject. This collection is the first to address the teaching of courses on death and dying from a religious studies perspective.

Palliative Care Nursing O'Connor Margaret, Aranda Sanchia,2016-07-06 Written by experienced authorities from around the world, giving a wider international perspective on palliative nursing, this substantially expanded new edition has been specifically adapted to reflect working practices within the NHS. All nurses, especially those that are new to palliative care, and those working in other areas of health where palliative skills are required, will find this essential reading. Crossing

Over David Barnard, Anna Towers, Patricia Boston, Yanna Lambrinidou,2023 The revised edition of Crossing Over is a book of stories, narratives of giving and receiving palliative care in the context of end of life. It is not a textbook that portrays ideal palliative care or that prescribes specific management techniques. Instead, it presents stories of actual patients and families who have experienced terminal illness with the support of hospice or palliative care teams. The narratives are derived from a three-year qualitative ethnographic study of the experiences of patients, families, and caregivers. The Ethics of Palliative

Care H. ten Have, David Clark,2002 This volume provides a picture of palliative care ethics in the European context. It should interest those involved in the delivery and management of palliative care services, as well as students and researchers.
