Crossing The River Essays In Honour Of Margaret Laurence

Gerald Lynch, Angela Robbeson

Crossing The River Essays In Honour Of Margaret Laurence:

Crossing the River Margaret Laurence, Kristjana Gunnars, 1988 In Crossing the River thirteen Canadian and European scholars celebrate the life and work of Margaret Laurence all students of Laurence's art should find this a useful probing casebook The Globe and Mail Margaret Laurence's Epic Imagination Paul Comeau, 2005-12-23 Although at times painfully insecure about her creative ability and achievement Margaret Laurence nevertheless remained fiercely loyal to her artistic vision an archetypal vision of loss exile and redemption that sought comprehensive expression in the epic mode that shapes the Bible Dante's Divine Comedy Milton's Paradise Lost and ultimately the Manawaka world of Hagar Shipley Rachel Cameron Stacey MacAindra and Morag Gunn Paul Comeau traces the development of Margaret Laurence's epic voice from its tentative beginnings in her African fiction to its culmination in the epic Manawaka Cycle a Dantesque journey through an infernal state of self destructive pride out of a purgatorial paralysis of self doubt and on to a kind of paradisaal fulfillment in self knowledge Laurence discovered in epic a fitting mode at once to requite her debt to the ancestors and to break free of their influence to portray the world through the sight of her own eyes In so doing she became the enduring epic voice of a country and a generation The Crafting of Chaos Hildegard Kuester, 1994 In this study of the Canadian novelist Margaret Laurence recent narratological models provide the theoretical framework for a textual analysis that aims at complementing previous thematic critiques The chief focus is on The Stone Angel and The Diviners which the conclusion then presents in the context of the other novels in Laurence's Manawaka cycle Consideration of the published works is rounded off with genetic comparison of the novelist's typescript drafts and an evaluation of the manuscript notes kept in the archives of McMaster and York Universities The central structural principle of The Stone Angel is its dovetailing of past and present scenes Temporal arrangement reflecting the frequency and duration of Hagar's memories reveals the hold of memory over the central character and her attempts to suppress her fear of mortality Hagar as narrator manipulates character presentation and description to her own advantage In a basically oppositional structure her need for control is reflected in the neat ordering of the narrative The verbal texture of the novel serves to establish a value system that insists on the superiority of imported culture over Western Canadian forms The Diviners shares a number of narrative similarities with The Stone Angel but the latter's formal rigidity has yielded by the time Laurence writes her last novel to the concept of multiplicity characters time planes perspectives and narrative voices including metafictional commentaries Textual coherence is secured via narrative strategies including typography generational paradigms repetition parallelism intertextuality and tropological patterning that render the novel readable and present experience as ordered in a time of cultural flux and personal crisis Racial, Ethnic, Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings Andreea Topor-Constantin, 2013-07-26 Racial Ethnic Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings is a study on Canada Canadian literature and Margaret Laurence's works in particular thus addressing various kinds of readership This book avoids the danger of limiting the approach to solely focusing attention on Canada by presenting a thorough analysis of various literary genres allowing the book to be of interest to all literature lovers Furthermore the book explores the parallelism between life and fiction emphasising Laurence s biographic and realist elements and their influence on the writer s fictional writing revealing real and imaginary worlds which would appeal to anybody s literary needs This major contribution to the already existent criticism of Margaret Laurence s works lies in the analysis of her work as an entity balancing both terms of the common binary oppositions fiction versus non fiction Africa versus Canada white versus Black or Metis In spite of critical comments which might be raised Andreea Topor Constantin comments on how the voice of the marginal makes itself heard throughout the author s books underlying Laurence s emphasis on characterisation and her genuine concern for people This book covers all aspects of Laurence s life and fiction from the African to the writer s Canadian background from adults to children s literature from novels to short stories from essays to letters in order to challenge readers perceptions of race ethnicity gender and class

New Perspectives on Margaret Laurence Greta M. Coger, 1996-05-30 Nearly all of Laurence s works from Africa and Canada are critiqued in this volume The essays highlight Laurence s innovative narrative styles showing how her combinations of oral literary forms and unique shifts in tense and point of view help her achieve vivid character portrayals In addition viewing Laurence s prose as closely textured poetry her use of language theme and image are carefully critiqued The importance of Laurence s portrayal of women s experiences most notably that of aging women is viewed in a feminist framework These new American perspectives on Laurence will be of interest to both scholars and students

Into Africa with Margaret Laurence Fiona Sparrow, 1992-12 Margaret Laurence is best known for her fiction set in Canada Less well known is the work that resulted from the years she spent in Africa Northern Somaliland in particular stimulated the deep understanding of human nature that permeates Laurence s subsequent work Fiona Sparrow s in depth study examines the foundations of Laurence s African writing as well as Laurence s personal experiences in West Africa

Space, Place and Hybridity in the National Imagination Christine Vandamme, André Dodeman, 2021-10-26 This volume explores space place and hybridity in today s multicultural societies with a strong emphasis on the role of art and spatial representations in order to map out the complexity of modern nations and celebrate the creative powers of their highly dynamic communities and cultures It considers how the very idea of the nation has evolved since the emergence and development of the idea of the nation state at the end of the eighteenth century and how art can reinvigorate representations of nation states worldwide without relegating their minorities to the margin Instead of merely focusing on the role of place and land in national representations the book adopts a wider and more critical approach to space in the arts by investigating the notions of both hybridity and Bhabha s Third Space in the fields of aesthetics film studies and literature with a particular emphasis on postcolonial literature

Dominant Impressions Gerald Lynch, Angela Robbeson, 1999 Canadian critics and scholars along with a growing number from around the world have long recognized the achievements of Canadian short story writers

However these critics have tended to view the Canadian short story as a historically recent phenomenon This reappraisal corrects this mistaken view by exploring the literary and cultural antecedents of the Canadian short story Published in English

River of Now and Then Susan Jane Warwick,1993 Canadian Fiction Studies are an answer to every librarian s student s and teacher s wishes Each book about 80 pages in length contains clear readable information on a major Canadian novel These studies are carefully designed readings of the novels they are not substitutes for reading them Each book is attractively produced and follows the same format so students will know exactly what to expect a chronology of the author s life the importance of the book critical reception reading of the text selected list of works cited English Studies in Canada ,1992

Feminist Theology with a Canadian Accent Mary Ann Beavis,Elaine Guillemin,Barbara Helen Pell,2008 An examination of the Canadian feminist theology context its history its multicultural perspective its expression of marginal experiences its commitment to social justice its exploration of eco feminism and its embrace of cultures ethnicities and the unique contribution of Canada s First Nations peoples Margaret Laurence Noelle Boughton,2006 A stunning book that captures the spirituality and talent of one of Canada s most celebrated writers Noelle Boughton s biography of Margaret Laurence communicates a great deal about the decency and complexity of both the author and Canadian culture Like most authors Margaret Laurence s work drew on the community in which she lived and the culture of the area informed the tone and content of her work This original work traces the spiritual core and growth of one of Canada s most powerful artists Starting from her roots in a middle class United Church small town prairie milieu this beautifully wrought book traces Laurence s connection with her home town and its people and explores the themes of community spirituality and social justice as they were expressed in her life and work This is an indispensable guide to the life and development of one of Canada s most treasured writers

Making a Difference Smaro Kamboureli,1996 This first comprehensive anthology of ethnic and aboriginal writing in Canada offers a wide range of writing styles in fiction and poetry with a focus on Native and immigrant experiences ethnic ancestry and the complex spectrum of cultural differences It begins with the first ethnic authors who wrote ethnic literature in English and includes established and new voices that have made a difference to our understanding of Canadian identity
