Did My Genes Make Me Do It:

Did My Genes Make Me Do It? Avrum Stroll, 2004 On this fascinating journey navigating the borders where science and philosophy meet Avrum Stroll addresses the major dilemmas that have perplexed humanity since the dawn of reason My Genes Made Me Do It! N. Whitehead, Briar Whitehead, 1999 The authors explore the question of whether our sexual orientation is inherited or if it is a product of our upbringing and or environment Many people think gays are born that way and few understand enough about genetics and human biology to mount a thorough defense of the facts My Genes Made Me Do It explains the role of genetics and biology in human behavior with a particular though not exclusive emphasis on homosexuality Conventional scientific method and research findings are brought together in a fresh original way to argue that no human behaviors are biologically determined God, Science, and Designer Genes Spencer S. Stober, Donna Yarri, 2009-10-13 A biologist and a Christian theologian examine the scientific and philosophical implications and potential impacts of genetic technologies God Science and Designer Genes An Exploration of Emerging Technologies provides a unique approach to the central ethical dilemma in contemporary science offering both an up to date account of the current state of genetic technologies and insightful discussions of the moral theological questions these technologies raise Coauthored by professors of biology and theology God Science and Designer Genes examines a range of from the headlines issues including the relationship between science and religion designing our children stem cell research cloning genetics and behavior genetics and privacy and using genetic technologies for social justice Who should benefit personally and financially from DNA technology Who might be harmed How do we protect individual rights and guard against discrimination How will embryo modification affect the identity of those so modified God Science and Designer Genes gives readers an eloquent thoughtful and objective foundation for considering these and other questions about the potential conflict between scientific achievement personal faith and social responsibility 8 Keys to Recovery from an Eating Disorder Carolyn Costin, Gwen Schubert Grabb, 2011-11-17 A unique and personal look into treatment of eating disorders written by a therapist and her former patient now a therapist herself This is no ordinary book on how to overcome an eating disorder The authors bravely share their unique stories of suffering from and eventually overcoming their own severe eating disorders Interweaving personal narrative with the perspective of their own therapist client relationship their insights bring an unparalleled depth of awareness into just what it takes to successfully beat this challenging and seemingly intractable clinical issue For anyone who has suffered their family and friends and other helping professionals this book should be by your side With great compassion and clinical expertise Costin and Grabb walk readers through the ins and outs of the recovery process describing what therapy entails clarifying the common associated emotions such as fear guilt and shame and most of all providing motivation to seek help if you have been discouraged resistant or afraid The authors bring self disclosure to a level not yet seen in an eating disorder book and offer hope to readers that full recovery is possible Body, Soul, and Human Life

(Studies in Theological Interpretation) Joel B. Green, 2008-07-01 Are humans composed of a material body and an immaterial soul This view is commonly held by Christians yet it has been undermined by recent developments in neuroscience Exploring what Scripture and theology teach about issues such as being in the divine image the importance of community sin free will salvation and the afterlife Joel Green argues that a dualistic view of the human person is inconsistent with both science and Scripture This wide ranging discussion is sure to provoke much thought and debate Bestselling books have explored the relationship between body mind and soul Now Joel Green provides us with a biblical perspective on these issues Informal Philosophy Avrum Stroll, 2009-04-16 Informal Philosophy provides an original look at how we should understand and teach philosophy Avrum Stroll persuasively argues that philosophy should be evaluated using its own methodology and should not merely mimic formal scientific analysis because while modern science does inform our philosophical views about man and his place in nature it does not solve philosophical problems Eliminate Your Sdbs Jonathan M. Chamberlain, 1978 The Philosophers' Magazine , 2005 What Makes Us Moral? Neil Levy, 2004-07-27 Is our motivation to be moral determined totally by our genes or are there other factors at work This is the only book to examine the field in its entirety starting with Darwin and moving on to explore how morality could have evolved and what we can learn from the discovery of so called genes for human behaviour In a powerful conclusion Levy argues that while our moral motives are products of evolution so are our immoral ones We are only truly human when we rise above our selfish genes Evolution Burt Guttman, 2005-08-29 Covering everything from fossilised dinosaurs to intelligent apes this is an accessible guide to one of the most important scientific theories of all time Burt Guttman assumes no prior scientific knowledge on the part of the reader and explains each of the key ideas and concepts including natural selection genetics and the evolution of animal behaviour in a lively and informative way Looking ahead to the future of evolutionary theory and assessing its possible implications for the way we understand morality human nature and our place in the world this book provides the perfect starting point for understanding what evolution is and why it matters Punishment and Personal Responsibility Göran Duus-Otterström, 2007 The World & I , 1987 Body, Soul, and Human Life Joel B. Green, 2008 Are humans composed of a material body and an immaterial soul This view is commonly held by Christians yet it has been undermined by recent developments in neuroscience How much of Christian theology is built on views of humanity that modern science has proved to be untenable Exploring what Scripture and theology teach about issues such as being in the divine image the importance of community sin free will salvation and the afterlife Joel Green argues that a dualistic view of the human person is inconsistent with both science and Scripture Publisher description of OCLC Ms. Magazine , 1973 The Fifty-one Percent Principle William C.
