Diderot Inside Outside Inbetween:

Diderot, Inside, Outside, & In-between Jack Undank, 1979 Blindness and Enlightenment: An Essay Kate E. Tunstall, 2011-08-18 Blindness and Enlightenment presents a reading and a new translation of Diderot's Letter on the Blind. Diderot was the editor of the Encyclopédie that Trojan horse of Enlightenment ideas as well as a novelist playwright art critic and philosopher. His Letter on the Blind of 1749 is essential reading for anyone interested in Enlightenment philosophy or eighteenth century literature because it contradicts a central assumption of Western literature and philosophy and of the Enlightenment in particular namely that moral and philosophical insight is dependent on seeing. Kate Tunstall's essay guides the reader through the Letter its anecdotes ideas and its conversational mode of presenting them and it situates the Letter in relation both to the Encyclopédie and to a rich tradition of writing about and most importantly talking and listening to the blind.

Success in Circuit Lies Rosalina de la Carrera, 1991-07-01 As contemporary thinkers continue to explore the intellectual affinities that bind the eighteenth and twentieth centuries their attention has turned with increasing frequency to Diderot. Focusing on models of communication this book draws on an interdisciplinary configuration a conjunction of communication theory philosophy of science and literary theory to analyze texts from Diderot's own interdisciplinary corpus. Of particular pertinence to the author's argument is Michel Serres's model of dialogue. Rejecting the traditional notion of dialogue as a binary exchange Serres defines it instead as the product of the association of two interlocutors who join forces against a third term another interlocutor or background noise that threatens to disrupt the exchange. Serres thus substitutes a ternary model of dialogue for the conventional binary one. Using Serres's model as a point of departure the author not only identifies specific instances of Diderot's use of a ternary communicational model but more important also demonstrates how Diderot's writings themselves generate a ternary model of communication that is uniquely his. She does this by tracing the model through texts drawn from domains as diverse as fiction history and natural philosophy. The repeated recurrence of Diderot's ternary model in these different contexts brings into focus an unexpected unity in what at first looks like a disparate corpus. As the analysis proceeds furthermore it also becomes clear that Diderot's materialist philosophy dictates a rhetoric aiming at the sensitive body just as much as the reasoning mind. Though the astounding diversity of Diderot's writings as encyclopedist novelist playwright philosopher scientific theorist and art critic has most often led critics to avoid the question of what coherences there might be within that diversity in this book the author asks just that question and goes far toward providing a convincing satisfying and stimulating answer. The book includes a new translation of the Preface annexe of La Religieuse the integral part of Diderot's novel missing from most readily available English language editions.

Framed Narratives Jay Caplan, 1986 Reading the French Enlightenment Julie Candler Hayes, 1999-07-15 In this 1999 book Julie Candler Hayes offers an ambitious reinterpretation of a crucial aspect of Enlightenment thought the rationalizing and classifying impulse. Taking issue both with traditional liberal and contemporary critical accounts of the Enlightenment

she analyses the writings of Denis Diderot Emilie Du Ch telet the Abb de Condillac Buffon d Alembert and numerous others to argue for a new understanding of systematic reason as complex paradoxical and ultimately liberating Hayes examines the tensions between freedom and constraint abstraction and materialism linear and synoptic order that pervade not only philosophic and scientific discourse but also epistolary writing fiction and criticism Drawing on the insights of a wide range of theorists from Adorno Habermas and Foucault to Deleuze and Derrida she offers a dialogue between the eighteenth century and our own an ongoing exploration of the question what is Enlightenment
