Die Kleine Stechardin:

Die kleine Stechardin Gert Hofmann, 1994 Hofmann schildert in seinem letzten Roman die Liebe des großen Aufklärers Lichtenberg zu der kleinen Stechardin. Das Mädchen zieht als Zwölfjährige in das Haus des buckligen Gelehrten um dort nach dem Rechten zu sehen. Sie wird es bis zu ihrem frühen Tod nicht mehr verlassen. In dem anrührenden und zugleich komischen Roman lässt Hofmann seiner Liebe zur literarischen Fiktion freien Lauf und imaginiert Leben Glück und Unglück des hochbegabten buckligen Zwerges.

Imagining the Age of Goethe in German Literature, 1770-2010 John David Pizer, 2011 This is the first book length study devoted to modern German author as character fiction set in the Age of Goethe. It shows for the first time in a sustained manner the powerful hold the Goethezeit continues to exercise on the imagination of many of Germany's leading writers. This inner German dialogue across the ages provides an important corrective to the dominant critical view that contemporary German language literature is composed primarily under the sign of both globalization and the influence of mass American culture.

Book cover A Companion to Twentieth-Century German Literature Raymond Furness, Malcolm Humble, 2003-09-02 Containing entries on over four hundred authors of fiction, poetry and drama from Germany, Austria and Switzerland, this invaluable work of reference presents material of a range and depth that no other book on the subject in English attains. For the second edition the entries have been updated to include the most recent works of German literature. A number of new entries have been added dealing in particular with the East German literary scene and the changing literary landscape after reunification. In addition to basic biographical facts, the Companion offers summaries, information on involvement in literary groups and political developments, schools and movements, critical terms and aspects of the other arts including film.

Gert Hofmann Hans-Georg Schede, 1999 Holocaust Literature: Agosin to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences. The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first, second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust. An essential literary reference work, this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries.
