Isabell Naumann, Peter John McGregor, Paul Morrissey, 2017-04-24 Since the Second Vatican Council the place of Mary in theology and generally in the life of the Church has been at times muted This is perhaps understandable given the debates concerning Mary's place in the documents of Vatican II In an ecumenical age it was argued the church needed a less triumphalist Mariology and piety with a greater focus on Mary as model disciple In certain respects this has led to a dichotomy between the continued Marian piety of many faithful and truth be told the piety of the post conciliar popes and a theological timidity concerning Mary This collection of chapters seeks to address the current situation of Mariology Taken as a whole these chapters represent a welcome call for renewal and reawakening in Mariology The collection is also delightfully eclectic both in terms of topics covered and in terms of the denominational and academic backgrounds of the authors Auslese ..., 1916 General Catalogue of Printed Books
