Die Mutter Roman:

The Jewish Self-Portrait in European and American Literature Hans-Jürgen Schrader, Elliott M. Simon, Charlotte Wardi, 2011-07-22 The articles in this collection originated from an international symposium at the University of Haifa and centre around a major topic in German European and American literature i.e. the way in which Jewish self definition both positive and negative has materialized as a product of the tensions between secular culture and society on the one hand and Jewish tradition and religion on the other The broad range of authors most of them of German speaking origin necessarily results in an almost equally broad range of answers to this central question The volume is dedicated to the memory of the Israeli literary scholar Chaim Shoham

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

Seelenarbeit an Deutschland, 2016-08-09 The last decade has undoubtedly been the most controversial in the long literary career of Martin Walser This volume presents a review of this career going far beyond short lived arguments to present an insightful overview of much of his work It considers not only major aspects of his writing covering both his literary beginnings and the most recent works but also different previously neglected features of his persona and his writing namely his activity as a university teacher and his art criticism In addition fruitful comparisons are made with other writers such as Proust Grass and Uwe Johnson At the same time recent controversies are also considered with major attention being paid to Walser's public speeches and those works of fiction which have been seen by some as demanding the end of German self recriminations over the Nazi past This volume is unique in that much space is devoted to both sides of the argument It will provide stimulating reading to all those interested in Germany and German literature

Eingesaugt & Rausgepresst Astrid Herbold, 2004 Das Schreiben zu beschreiben ist seit Jahrhunderten fester Bestandteil der auktorialen abendlichen Selbstreflexion Zur metapho-rischen Umschreibung dieses komplexen inneren Vorgangs musste häufig das im wahrsten Sinne
