Die Pegnitz:

Poets Laureate in the Holy Roman Empire John L. Flood, 2019-07-08 Between 1355 and 1806 the title of Poet Laureate was bestowed on around 1500 persons in the territories of the Holy Roman Empire In some cases the title was conferred by the Emperor himself on his own initiative or in response to a petitioner In others the title was granted by a count palatine acting upon the Emperor's behalf but an even larger number had the title bestowed on them by various German universities exercising this privilege under the Emperor's authority The lives and publications of 1340 of these poets were detailed in the four volume Poets Laureate in the Holy Roman Empire A Bio bibliographical Handbook published in 2006 This supplementary volume provides similar information about some 130 further poets who have come to light since that work was published Furthermore it updates augments and where necessary corrects details relating to the poets covered in the previous volumes In particular it includes extensive new information about the two dozen women poets who were laureated in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Poets Laureate in the Holy Roman Empire A Bio bibliographical Handbook Volume 1 4 is still available for purchase

Chris Jones, Conor Kostick, Klaus Oschema, 2019-12-02 When scholars discuss the medieval past the temptation is to become immersed there to deepen our appreciation of the nuances of the medieval sources through debate about their meaning But the past informs the present in a myriad of ways and medievalists can and should use their research to address the concerns and interests of contemporary society This volume presents a number of carefully commissioned essays that demonstrate the fertility and originality of recent work in Medieval Studies Above all they have been selected for relevance Most contributors are in the earlier stages of their careers and their approaches clearly reflect how interdisciplinary methodologies applied to Medieval Studies have potential repercussions and value far beyond the boundaries of the Middle Ages. These chapters are powerful demonstrations of the value of medieval research to our own times both in terms of providing answers to some of the specific questions facing humanity today and in terms of much broader considerations. Taken together, the research presented here also provides readers with confidence in the fact that Medieval Studies cannot be neglected without a great loss to the understanding of what it means to be human.
