Beyond Knowledge Management Jay Liebowitz, 2016-04-19 Although knowledge management KM has already helped numerous organizations achieve competitive advantages many organizations have yet to embark on their knowledge management journey Geared for executives and senior managers Beyond Knowledge Management What Every Leader Should Know is concise and easy to read It looks at 10 areas where organi     A Christian Mother's Survival Guide Iris M. Shamble, 2005-05 More women are making choices of family now career later The trend is for younger mothers to take five years or so off while their children are young These are some of the most impressionable years on our children The world is getting to be a tough place to live as a Mother and as a Christian Raising children in today s society is a constant challenge for parents and children but especially for Mothers who need to make a living More children are spending For the past 5 years Iris has researched this subject and interviewed like minded woman to provide legitimate resources for mothers who not only desire to be with their families in the home but desire to make an income while doing so Iris provides pr Nearly 60% of our children are being raised in single parent homes At an alarming rate marriages are failing at the rate of over 50% This book addresses issues the single mother may encounter such as loneliness fear and anger You will find out how Iris will show you how to cultivate that gift or dream inside of you and bring it to fulfillment Each and every one of us is uniquely designed for a purpose     Leading in the Age of Innovations Lenka Theodoulides, Gabriela Kormancová, David Cole, 2019-02-06

Leading in the Age of Innovations centres on the need for a more complex process relational oriented approach to leadership The complexity of leadership has grown significantly during the 21st century where the need to adapt to the escalating changes in our society and workplace forms one of the most important prerequisites to succeed Leading in the Age of Innovations represents the outcomes of the lengthy scientific work that was undertaken for the past 10 years and it is still an ongoing process This book introduces a new concept of leadership based on the process and relational dimensions which resulted in the development of the Reflective Leadership concept The new model of leadership provides a unique concept on how to bring together various disciplines and explains the overlapping relations between them Moreover the proposed view on leadership reflects the current evolution around the globe highlighting the importance of change and innovation In organizations too much focus is on the end product and the technical details of how a product is made and distributed Less attention is focused on how people interact and how the human capacity is effectively supported by leaders who on the other hand are expected to support a culture of innovation This behavioural interaction is governed by a set of predictable values and norms These relationships need to be understood for an organization to prosper and is thus far more important to the leadership process Leading in the Age of Innovations seeks to establish this understanding and will be key reading to researchers scholars and practitioners alike in the field of leadership organizational studies and related disciplines

Effective Multicultural Teams: Theory and Practice Claire B. Halverson, S. Aqeel Tirmizi, 2008-06-06 Multicultural and multinational teams have become an important strategic and structural element of organizational work in our globalized world today. These teams are demonstrating their importance from the factory floors to the boardrooms of contemporary organizations. The emergence of multicultural teams is evident across a variety of organizations in the private public and civil society sectors. These developments have led to an increasing interest in the theory and practice of multicultural teams. Management educational and training programs are giving increasing attention to these developments. At the same time there is emerging interest in research about and study of multicultural teams. This book emerged from our teaching research and consulting with multicultural and diverse teams in multiple sectors over the last several years. In particular we have developed and refined our ideas about the concepts in this book from teaching an advanced course called Effective Multicultural Teams in the Graduate Program at the School for International Training SIT in Vermont. We have learned from the rich background of students who are from and have worked in six continents and who are or plan to be working in the public educational not for profit and for profit sectors. Additionally we have engaged with a variety of teams through our consulting and training providing consultation to teams in a variety of sectors and continents as they struggled to become more effective.
