Quick Team-Building Activities for Busy Managers Brian Cole Miller, 2015-03-25. Eliminate the need for time or resources on formal training and get your teams up and running themselves with only minutes of prep. Between workplace personnel being more culturally diverse than ever before, a generation of employees being raised attached to technology while avoiding human interaction, and an increasing culture of competitiveness that is constantly raising tensions between cubicles, it has become absolutely essential for managers to focus more on camaraderie and building team spirit. Now in its second edition, Quick Team Building Activities for Busy Managers addresses the problems that drag down group productivity and helps teams collaborate successfully, cope with change, solve problems together, communicate better despite cultural and generational differences, boost creativity, leverage diversity, and nurture healthy competition. Each of the 50 team building activities in this invaluable resource takes only minutes to prep and uses only everyday office items to get its point across. In just 15 minutes a day, the results will be immediate: sullen teams find sparkle, nervous teams gain confidence, teams of strangers get to know one another. There are even activities to help the virtual team. No one will be left out, and all will leave the activity feeling better about their team and their individual role within it.

Successful Team Building Glenn M. Parker, 2011. Annotation: In this easy-to-use manual, team building expert and author Glenn Parker shows you how to successfully conduct team building when team building is called for. As with the other books in this series, this is accomplished through the use of assessments, activities, and exercises.

Let the Games Begin Ruth Frisz, Joe Bertolino, Ugo Eze, 2012-07-18. Have you ever led a group or taught/facilitated a workshop or taught a class and needed the perfect interactive ice breaker or thought-provoking exercise? This manual provides just that. As facilitators, speakers, and professors, we found we were always looking for interactive exercises that allow students and participants to reflect, think, and learn. As a result, this first collection of exercises from the Queens College Student Personnel Departments Peer and Leadership Program was created. The majority of these exercises have been created by students for students. These activities can be used by many different types of organizations, including but not limited to educational institutions, businesses, non-profit organizations, and religious institutions. The activities lend themselves to adjustments and revisions depending on the goals of the workshop, conference, retreat, or in-service meetings. This manual is designed to offer ideas and suggestions to those who want to provide this kind of opportunity to their employees, students, administrators, management teams, or others.
