Transhuman Citizen Ben Murnane, 2024-06-28 This is the story of America s zaniest presidential candidate who wants to turn the whole population into cyborgs It s a true story stranger than fiction Don t stand there Zoltan almost stepped on a landmine He was in Vietnam reporting for National Geographic If his guide hadn t warned him he d be dead Zoltan didn t want to die Who does But Zoltan realized something else just then He didn t want to die ever In fact he didn t want anyone to die ever again It s an idea he s been pushing now for years He s a leader in the transhumanism movement which wants to merge humans with machines Zoltan drove a bus shaped like a coffin across the US to teach people about the new frontiers of science that mean death is not inevitable His presidential campaigns have attracted global attention Imagine there were no diseases because science had cured them all Imagine storing your mind in a computer Living longer than you ever expected for hundreds of years This is the extraordinary story of Zoltan s war on death Youth Cultures, Responsive Education, and Learning Robertson, Margaret E., 2023-09-18 Today s youth find themselves navigating an uncertain terrain marked by shifting societal foundations History tradition and geopolitics were once steadfast guides but now seem elusive or ineffective The pandemic identity crises and environmental upheavals have blurred the lines of reality leaving younger generations in pursuit of sustainable futures The social bonds that once held us together are weakening and established socio political and religious frameworks no longer offer clear direction We are at a crossroads faced with a pivotal question can we provide the necessary guidance for future generations to navigate this tumultuous era and forge a brighter future Youth Cultures Responsive Education and Learning emerges as a timely and thought provoking compass for understanding and addressing the challenges confronting today s youth Rather than prescribing a singular correct path forward it offers a diverse and comprehensive exploration of the past present and future of youth culture This book is indispensable for academic scholars and researchers seeking a thorough examination of the dynamic landscape of youth cultures responsive education and learning It serves as a valuable resource for those dedicated to understanding and addressing the intricate challenges that confront our youth in an ever evolving world Making Sense of Society Alex Khasnabish, 2022-05-30T00:00:00Z Grounded in the sister disciplines of sociology and anthropology this textbook is an accessible and critical introduction to contemporary social research Alex Khasnabish eschews the common disciplinary silos in favour of an integrated approach to understanding and practising critical social research Situated in the North American context the text draws on cross cultural examples to give readers a clear sense of the diversity in human social relations It is organized thematically in a way that introduces readers to the core areas of social research and social organization and takes an unapologetically radical approach in identifying the relations of oppression and exploitation that give rise to what most corporate textbooks euphemistically identify as social problems Focusing on key dynamics and processes at the heart of so many contemporary issues and public conversations this text highlights the ways in which critical social research can contribute to exploring understanding and forging alternatives to an increasingly bankrupt violent unstable and unjust status quo

Sexualised Masculinity John Mercer, Clarissa Smith, 2025-02-10 Sexualised Masculinity Men's Bodies in 21st Century Media Culture explores evolving portrayals of masculinity in contemporary media focusing on the increasing eroticisation of the male body This book examines how traditional and digital media from films and television to social media platforms and fashion have transformed the ways masculinity is represented and perceived Through a wide array of case studies it highlights how male bodies are now sites of erotic value challenging long standing norms and expectations By exploring both global and local media John Mercer and Clarissa Smith provide insights into the shifting landscape of gender and sexuality offering a critical perspective on how masculinity is consumed performed and commodified in today's world This book is essential for students and scholars in fields such as gender studies media studies cultural studies and social history and is particularly relevant for those interested in understanding the intersections of masculinity media and sexuality in the 21st century
