Affordable Entry Level Remote Jobs For Beginners For Women:

Getting Me Cheap Amanda Freeman, Lisa Dodson, 2022-11-29 Two groundbreaking sociologists explore the way the American dream is built on the backs of working poor women. Many Americans take comfort and convenience for granted. We eat at nice restaurants, order groceries online, and hire nannies to care for kids. Getting Me Cheap is a riveting portrait of the lives of the low wage workers, primarily women, who make this lifestyle possible. Sociologists Lisa Dodson and Amanda Freeman follow women in the food, health care, home care, and other low wage industries as they struggle to balance mothering with bad jobs and without public aid. While these women tend to the needs of well off families, their own children frequently step into premature adult roles, providing care for siblings and aging family members. Based on years of in depth field work and hundreds of eye opening interviews, Getting Me Cheap explores how America traps millions of women and their children into lives of stunted opportunity and poverty in service of giving others of us the lives we seek. Destined to rank with works like Evicted and Nickel and Dimed for its revelatory glimpse into how our society functions behind the scenes, Getting Me Cheap also offers a way forward with both policy solutions and a keen moral vision for organizing women across class lines.

Shift Change Stephen Dale, 2021-10-04 Hamilton's industrial age is over. In the steel capital of Canada, there are no more skies lit red by foundries at sunset, no more traffic jams at shift change. Instead, an urban renaissance is taking shape. But who wins and who loses in the city's not too distant future? Is it possible to lift a downtrodden post industrial city out of poverty in a way that benefits people across the social spectrum, not just a wealthy elite? In Shift Change, author Stephen Dale sets up the Hammer as a battlefield, a laboratory, a chessboard. As investors cash in on a real estate gold rush and the all too familiar wheels of gentrification begin to turn, there's still a rare opportunity for both old guard and newcomer Hamiltonians to come together and write a different story, one in which Steeltown becomes an economically diverse and inclusive urban centre for all. What plays out in these pages, and at this very moment, is a real time case study that will capture the attention and the imagination of anyone interested in equitable redevelopment, housing activism, and social justice in the North American city.

Backpacker, 1991-09 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep, inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often. The authority on active adventure, Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails, camping gear, and survival tips they publish. Backpacker's Editors' Choice Awards, an industry honor recognizing design, feature, and product innovation, has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured.

Feminization of the Labor Force Jane Jenson, Elisabeth Hagen, Ceallaigh Reddy, 1988 The rapid influx of women into the paid labor force has dramatically altered North American and European economies in the postwar period. This volume compares the feminization of labor in the U.S., Canada, Britain, France, Germany, Italy, and Sweden, examining the status of working women under a variety of governmental policies, economic systems, and labor conditions.
