Unemployment Insurance Reporter, 1936 No Bicycle, No Bus, No Job Patrick Bek, 2025-10-01 For working people the cost of getting to work in terms of time and expense is a crucial aspect of daily life In the twentieth century people's opportunity to travel increased This did not however apply to everyone The absence of affordable housing near job locations combined with the lack of safe efficient and affordable mobility options aggravated social exclusion for some No Bicycle No Bus No Job details how power relations have historically enabled or restricted workers mobility in twentieth century Netherlands Blue collar workers industrial employers and the state shaped workers everyday commute in a changing playing field of uneven power relations that shifted from paternalism to neo liberalism

Filterworld Kyle Chayka, 2024-01-23 The story told here is instrumental to your own Jared Lanier Timely erudite important Ayad Akhtar What happens when our cultural and artistic lives are dictated to us by an algorithm What does it mean when shareability supersedes innovation How can we make a choice when the options have been so carefully arranged for us From coffee shops to city grids to TikTok feeds and Netflix homepages the world over algorithmic recommendations prescribe our experiences This network of mathematically determined choices the Filterworld has taken over almost unnoticed as we've grown accustomed to an insipid new normal But to have our tastes behaviours and emotions governed by computers calls the very notion of free will into question Internationally recognized journalist and New Yorker staff writer Kyle Chayka journeys through this ever tightening web woven by algorithms He explores how online and offline spaces alike have been engineered for seamless consumption How the lowest common denominator is promoted at the expense of the complex diverse or challenging How users of technology contend with data driven equations that promise to anticipate their desires but often get them wrong How the Filterworld is determining the very shape of culture itself Chayka skilfully and compellingly traces this creeping machine guided curation that influences not just what culture we consume but what culture is produced In doing so he attempts to answer to the most urgent question currently facing us is personal freedom ever again possible on the Internet Filterworld is a fascinating history of the rise of the algorithm and an important investigation into where it could take us next if we let it Unemployment Compensation Interpretation Service ,1947
