Getting Me Cheap Amanda Freeman, Lisa Dodson, 2022-11-29 Two groundbreaking sociologists explore the way the American dream is built on the backs of working poor women Many Americans take comfort and convenience for granted We eat at nice restaurants order groceries online and hire nannies to care for kids Getting Me Cheap is a riveting portrait of the lives of the low wage workers primarily women who make this lifestyle possible Sociologists Lisa Dodson and Amanda Freeman follow women in the food health care home care and other low wage industries as they struggle to balance mothering with bad jobs and without public aid While these women tend to the needs of well off families their own children frequently step into premature adult roles providing care for siblings and aging family members Based on years of in depth field work and hundreds of eye opening interviews Getting Me Cheap explores how America traps millions of women and their children into lives of stunted opportunity and poverty in service of giving others of us the lives we seek Destined to rank with works like Evicted and Nickle and Dimed for its revelatory glimpse into how our society functions behind the scenes Getting Me Cheap also offers a way forward with both policy solutions and a keen moral vision for organizing women across class lines

My Father's Brain Sandeep Jauhar, 2025-06-23 There may be up to 10 million Indians living with Alzheimer's disease or related dementias and that number is expected to increase dramatically in the next few decades What is it like to live with and amid this increasingly prevalent condition an affliction that some fear more than death In My Father's Brain the distinguished physician and author Sandeep Jauhar sets his father's descent into Alzheimer's alongside his own journey toward understanding this disease and how it might best be coped with if not cured In an intimate memoir rich with humour and heartbreak Jauhar relates how his immigrant father and extended family felt quarrelled and found their way through the dissolution of a cherished life Along the way he lucidly exposes what happens in the brain as we age and our memory falters and explores everything from the history of ancient Greece to the most cutting edge neurological and bioethical research Throughout My Father's Brain confronts the moral and psychological concerns that arise when family members must become caregivers when children's and parents roles reverse and when we must accept unforeseen turns in our closest relationships and in our understanding of what it is to have a self The result is a work of essential insight into dementia and into how scientists caregivers and all of us in an aging society are reckoning with the fallout

One Step Beyond Alex "Sonny Boy" Bellehumeur, 2023-02-22 Alex Sonny Boy Bellehumeur author herein dedicates this journal to Dr Stuart Farber dean of students and professor at the College of Business Administration at California State University who encouraged Alex to publish a book about his life Cal State Long Beach CSULB held special events with hundreds of current and former students each year Alex Bellehumeur past president of the Port of Long Beach and then Governor appointee and chairman of the World Trade Commission was asked by Dr Farber to be the keynote speaker at one of these affairs in front of over six hundred attendees aboard the Queen Mary in Long Beach California We met early and began The Walk during which time Dean Farber extracted details of my youth and believed the audience should know the challenges I was able to overcome This had nothing to do with my planned speech Thoughts from Dr Farber In all my years of hosting this special event I have never had such an incredible response from the audience You have changed the lives of many attendees A book of your past challenges and how they were overcome by taking that one step beyond would have a life changing effect on those whose life's growth potential would not otherwise be met It has been 16 years from when Dr Farber made such a request that Alex began the process in the hope of encouraging the readers to take that One Step Beyond
