The Languages of World Literature Achim Hölter, 2024-03-04 This volume opens the series of papers presented at the Vienna Congress of AILC ICLA 2016 beginning with eight keynotes Thirty four further papers are dedicated to the central theme of the conference the linguistic side of world literature under different focal points The volume further contains five roundtables the papers of a workshop of the UNESCO memory of the worlds programme a presentation of the avldigital de platform as well as several bibliographically enriched overviews of the special lexicography of comparative literature up to date versions of the ICLA publications and an example of multiple translations of a famous modern classic The Background And Contents Of Paul's Cultic Atonement Metaphors Stephen Finlan, 2004 This examination of Gentile and Jewish religious and literary descriptions of sacrificial and expulsion rituals provides a useful background to the study of Paul s metaphorical use of sacrifice and scapegoat to characterize the significance of the death of Jesus In addition to offering an overview of Paul s use of cultic metaphors and an assessment of Paul s synthesis of martyrology and cultic metaphor this work shows how Paul uses still other metaphors acquittal reconciliation adoption to picture the beneficial after effects of that death Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org Ethics and Human Rights in Anglophone African Women's Literature Chielozone Eze, 2016-12-14 This book proposes feminist empathy as a model of interpretation in the works of contemporary Anglophone African women writers The African woman s body is often portrayed as having been disabled by the patriarchal and sexist structures of society Returning to their bodies as a point of reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporary African women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozone Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and increasingly cosmopolitan communities Looking for Hamlet Marvin W. Hunt, 2007-12-10 A mysterious melancholic brooding Hamlet has gripped and fascinated four hundred years of readers trying to find and know him as he searches for and avenges his father's name Setting itself apart from the usual discussions about Hamlet Hunt here demonstrates that Hamlet is much more than we take him to be Much more than the sum of his parts more than just tragic sexy youth and more than just vain cruelty Hamlet is a reflection of our own aspirations and neuroses Looking for Hamlet investigates our many searches for Hamlet from their origins in Danish mythology through the complex problems of early printed texts through the centuries of shifting interpretations of the young prince to our own time when Hamlet is more compelling and perplexing than ever before Hunt presents Hamlet as a sort of missing person the idealized being inside oneself This search for the missing Hamlet Hunt argues reveals a present absence readers pursue as a means of finding and identifying ourselves
