Contestable Concepts Of Literary Theory:

Contestable Concepts of Literary Theory Arthur Keister Moore, 1973-01-01 Theory's Empire Daphne Patai, Wilfrido Howard Corral, 2005 Not too long ago literary theorists were writing about the death of the novel and the death of the author today many are talking about the death of Theory Theory as the many theoretical isms among them postcolonialism postmodernism and New Historicism are now known once seemed so exciting but has become ossified and insular This iconoclastic collection is an excellent companion to current anthologies of literary theory which have embraced an uncritical stance toward Theory and its practitioners Written by nearly fifty prominent scholars the essays in Theory's Empire question the ideas catchphrases and excesses that have let Theory congeal into a predictable orthodoxy More than just a critique however this collection provides readers with effective tools to redeem the study of literature restore reason to our intellectual life and redefine the role and place of Theory in the academy The Literary Coherence of the Book of Micah Kenneth H. Cuffey, 2015-02-26 The Literary Coherence of the Book of Micah puts forth a framework to understand the nature of literary coherence This enables an analysis of the sources and dimensions of the coherence found in the book of Micah by the primary scholarly proposals for understanding the structure and connectedness of the whole book Each of these proposals ultimately fails to account for all the features found in the text The author then explains a new reading of the final form of the text of Micah based on the placement of the references concerning the remnant A brief exposition of the text as a canonical whole indicates the flow and development in the final form of the book The framework formulated earlier provides a basis to evaluate the coherence that this understanding of the book of Micah uncovers and to show that this means of reading the canonical book best accounts for the greatest number of features in the text A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women's studies The Distinctive Literary Property James Harry McCormick, 1977 American Literary Scholarship 1973 American Literary Scholarship, 1975 Essayists survey the recent thought and research concerning outstanding authors trends and movements in American literature Narrative Identity and Personal Responsibility Linda Ethell, 2010-01-01 The exploration of personal identity and theories of narrative in Narrative Identity and Personal Responsibility is extraordinarily suggestive resulting in implications for theories of action as well as ethics and psychology Taking seriously the thought that we mediate our relations with the world by means of self defining narratives grounded in the natural phenomenon of desire provides new answers to old puzzles of what it means to be human Beautiful Theories Elizabeth W. Bruss, 1982
