debates rather than to practitioners who may find it heavy weather if they have not had the time or resources to engage with what are often quite difficult and often dense writings British Journal of Social Work This book presents a clarity that is vivid This book would be a good place for psychiatrists to start British Journal of Psychiatry Pathology and the Postmodern explores the relationship between mental distress and social constructionism using new work from eminent scholars in the fields of sociology psychology and philosophy The authors address how specific cultural economic and historical forces converge in contemporary psychiatry and psychology how new syndromes subjectivities and identities are being constructed and deconstructed in technological culturally mediated and hyper reflexive contexts and what new critiques of positivism and new understandings of pathology seem viable given these still emerging scenarios Building upon work in such areas as labelling theory feminist studies linguistics and post structuralism the twelve chapters engage the cultural historical and political conditions that should be implicated in our understanding of contemporary mental suffering Handbook of Contemporary European Social Theory Gerard Delanty, 2006-09 This innovative publication maps out the broad and interdisciplinary field of contemporary European social theory It covers sociological theory the wider theoretical traditions in the social sciences including cultural and political theory anthropological theory social philosophy and social thought in the broadest sense of the term This volume surveys the classical heritage the major national traditions and the fate of social theory in a post national and post disciplinary era It also identifies what is distinctive about European social theory in terms of themes and traditions It is divided into five parts disciplinary traditions national traditions major schools key themes and the reception of European social theory in American and Asia Thirty five contributors from nineteen countries across Europe Russia the Americas and Asian Pacific have been commissioned to utilize the most up to date research available to provide a critical international analysis of their area of expertise Overall this is an indispensable book for students teachers and researchers in sociology cultural studies politics philosophy and human geography and will set the tone for future research in the social sciences Postmodernism, Postcoloniality, and African Studies Zine Magubane, 2005 When Kwame Appiah asked the question whether post in postcolonial was the post in postmodern he challenged the theoretical tenets of both postmodernism and postcolonial studies and opened up a space for a dialogue which unfortunately only a handful of scholars have continued This volume represents an attempt by Africanist scholars to intervene and change the course of current debates which are being carried out with little or no thought to their applicability or relevance to African studies The purpose of this study is not merely to present an African version of postcolonial studies or postmodernism or to Africanize their content and theory Rather it aims to re situate these concepts and debates which are at risk of being colonized by American and European academic provincialism This collection considers perspectives from West South and East Africa as well as the Caribbean It approaches current debates from the disciplinary perspectives of anthropology history linguistics literature philosophy and sociology while dealing with a diverse range of issues including gender race ethnicity and identity

Chall,2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Education Under Occupation Pierre W. Orelus,2007 In this book the author critically analyzes the ongoing and wide ranging effects of colonialism and globalization on the poor especially on those living in the Third World The author s overarching argument is that colonization was not merely about the conquest of foreign lands but it was also about the ideological monitoring of the colonized s mind often maintained through western hegemonic texts and institutional apparatus such as schools and churches Analyzing and situating colonialism in the context of western neo liberal policy of occupation and economic political and ideological dominations the author thus demonstrates how through schools and the mass corporate media neocolonized and occupied subjects have been mis educated to internalize and reproduce old western values beliefs and norms at the expense of their own Publisher
