Confronting Colonialism Irfan Habib, 2002 Papers presented at various proceedings of the Indian History Congress

State and Diplomacy Under Tipu Sultan: Documents and Essays Irfan Habib, 2014-12-02 State and Diplomacy under Tipu Sultan Documents and Essays supplements Confronting Colonialism Resistance and Modernization under Haidar Ali and Tipu Sultan which was published in 1999 by the Indian History Congress as part of the Srirangapatnam bicentennial. The main object of this volume is not only to add fresh contributions to the papers collected in Confronting Colonialism but also to present documentary evidence that has not received its due in studies on Haidar Ali and Tipu Sultan. It is hoped that the translations of texts, commentaries on documents and interpretive essays contained here will mark a further stage of progress in the exploration and use of source material on Tipu Sultan in both Persian and French.

A History of Modern India Ishita Banerjee-Dube, 2014-10-27 This book provides an interpretive and comprehensive account of the history of India between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries, a crucial epoch characterized by colonialism, nationalism and the emergence of the independent Indian Union. It explores significant historiographical debates concerning the period while highlighting important new issues, especially those of gender, ecology, caste and labour. The work combines an analysis of colonial and independent India in order to underscore ideologies, policies and processes that shaped the colonial state and continue to mould the Indian nation.

From Plassey to Partition Śekhara Bandyopādhyāya, 2004 From Plassey to Partition is an eminently readable account of the emergence of India as a nation. It covers about two hundred years of political and socio-economic turbulence. Of particular interest to the contemporary reader will be sections such as Early Nationalism, Discontent and Dissension, Many Voices of a Nation and Freedom with Partition. On the one hand it converses with students of Indian history and on the other it engages general and curious readers. Few books on this crucial period of history have captured the rhythms of India's polyphonic nationalism as From Plassey to Partition.

Cultural Encounters in India Heike Liebau, 2017-07-14 The book is an English translation of an award-winning German book. The history of social and religious encounter in 18th century South India is narrated through fascinating biographies and day-to-day lives of Indian workers in the Tranquebar Mission, 1706-1845. The book challenges the notion that Christianity in colonial India was basically imposed from the outside. Liebau maintains that significant contributions were made by the local converts and mission co-workers who played an important role in the Tranquebar Mission.

A Great War in South India Ravi Ahuja, Martin Christof-Füchsle, 2019-12-02 This book examines documents from the wars between the British colonial power and the South Indian regional power Mysore between 1766 and 1799. It transcribes and makes available for the first time the rich German documentation of a war that was as destructive as the Thirty Years War in Germany.
