Wisnicki, 2019-03-20 Fieldwork of Empire 1840 1900 Intercultural Dynamics in the Production of British Expeditionary Literature examines the impact of non western cultural political and social forces and agencies on the production of British expeditionary literature it is a project of recovery The book argues that such non western impact was considerable that it shaped the discursive and material dimensions of expeditionary literature and that the impact extends to diverse materials from the expeditionary archive at a scale and depth that critics have previously not acknowledged The focus of the study falls on Victorian expeditionary literature related to Africa a continent of accelerating British imperial interest in the nineteenth century but the study s findings have the potential to inform scholarship on European expeditionary imperial and colonial literature from a wide variety of periods and locations The book s analysis is illustrative not comprehensive Each chapter targets intercultural encounters and expeditionary literature associated with a specific time period and African region or location The book suggests that future scholarship especially in areas such as expeditionary history geography cartography travel writing studies and book history needs to adopt much more of a localized non western focus if it is to offer a full account of the production of expeditionary discourse and literature Human Conflict from Neanderthals to the Samburu: Structure and Agency in Webs of Violence William P. Kiblinger, 2020-10-20 This book examines human conflict throughout history the reasons behind the struggles and why it persists The volume delves into the causes of human conflict and what can be done about them Based on detailed descriptions that support insightful interpretations the book explores significant historical events in the course of human history By pursuing a web of violence approach it raises and answers questions about the sources of conflict and how it may or may not be resolved through investigations into human agency and practice It evaluates lessons learned concerning human conflict violence and warfare To illustrate these lessons the book presents a broad geographical and temporal set of data including research on the time of Neanderthals in Europe 20 30 thousand years ago the Late Neolithic civilization on the Mediterranean 6 8 thousand years ago medieval Ireland contemporary history of the Western Dani peoples of West Papua and finally recent issues in Brazil Congo and Kenya Catalogue A.  Passages unites literature written by members of the far flung Black Anglophone diaspora Rather than categorizing novels as simply African American Black Canadian Black British or postcolonial African Caribbean this book takes an integrative approach it argues that fiction creates and sustains a sense of a wider African diasporic community in the Western world Tuire Valkeakari analyzes the writing of Toni Morrison Caryl Phillips Lawrence Hill and other contemporary novelists of African descent She shows how their novels connect with each other and with defining moments in the transatlantic experience most notably the Middle Passage and enslavement The lives of their characters are marked by migration and displacement Their protagonists yearn to experience fulfilling human connection in a place they can call home Portraying strategies of survival adaptation and resistance across the limitless varieties of life experiences in the diaspora these novelists continually reimagine what it means to share a Black diasporic identity The Publishers Weekly ,1928
