Transnational Perspectives on the Conquest and Colonization of Latin America Jenny Mander,David Midgley,Christine Beaulé,2019-09-19 Ranging geographically from Tierra del Fuego to California and the Caribbean and historically from early European sightings and the utopian projects of would be colonizers to the present day cultural politics of migrant communities and international relations this volume presents a rich variety of case studies and scholarly perspectives on the interplay of diverse cultures in the Americas since the European conquest Subjects covered include documentary and archaeological evidence of cultural interaction the collection of native artifacts and the role of museums in the interpretation of indigenous traditions the cultural impact of Christian missions and the representation of indigenous cultures in writings addressed to European readers the development of Latin American artistic traditions and the incorporation of motifs from European classical antiquity into modern popular culture the contribution of Afro descendants to the cultural mix of Latin America and the erasure of the Hispanic heritage from cultural perceptions of California since the nineteenth century By offering accessible and well illustrated accounts of a wide range of particular cases the volume aims to stimulate thinking about historical and methodological issues which can be exploited in a teaching context as well as in the furtherance of research projects in a comparative and transnational framework The Making of Europe Robert Bartlett,1993 This provocative book shows that Europe in the Middle Ages was as much a product of a process of conquest and colonization as it was later a colonizer Will be of great interest to those interested in cultural transformation colonialism racism the Crusades or holy wars in general William C Jordan Princeton University 12 halftones 12 maps 6 diagrams The Decolonial Politics and Philosophy of Ngugi wa Thiong'o Brian Sibanda,2024-11-18 This book explores Ngugi wa Thiong'o s epistemic journey from a communalist communist nationalist post colonial theorist and ultimately an established decolonial spokesperson of the Global South This book offers a fresh perspective for scholars and readers interested in decolonial theory and African philosophy Cultural Heritage Issues James A.R. Nafziger, Ann M. Nicgorski, 2009-12-07 The global community dependent as always on the cooperation of nation states is gradually learning to address the serious threats to the cultural heritage of our disparate but shared civilizations The legacy of conquest colonialization and commerce looms large in defining and explaining these threats The essays contained in this challenging volume are based on papers presented at an international conference on cultural heritage issues that took place at Willamette University The conference sought to generate fresh ideas about these cultural heritage issues offer a good sense of their nuances and complexities and reveal how culture law and ethics can interact complement diverge and contradict one another This book seeks to accomplish these purposes What it explores is the fact that along with an emerging blend of adversarial and collaborative processes to address cultural heritage issues has come a substantial broadening of the normative framework in recent years This framework now spans a welter of issues ranging from the creation of cultural safety zones during armed conflict to the ongoing rectification of genocidal conquest during the European Holocaust and World War II to the treatment of shipwrecks and their cargo to the protection of folklore and other intangibles to the promotion of traditional knowledge in the interest of biological diversity All of these topics are controversial as are the legal instruments that incorporate them but the issues they embrace are vital to us all whether our viewpoint is in the global arena a national legislature a courtroom a classroom an archaeological site or a museum Harmsworth History of the World Sir John Alexander Hammerton, 1907 Harmsworth History of the World: Man and the universe. Japan. Siberia. China Arthur Mee, 1907 The Conquest of History Christopher Schmidt-Nowara, 2006-11-06 As Spain rebuilt its colonial regime in Cuba Puerto Rico and the Philippines after the Spanish American revolutions it turned to history to justify continued dominance The metropolitan vision of history however always met with opposition in the colonies The Conquest of History examines how historians officials and civic groups in Spain and its colonies forged national histories out of the ruins and relics of the imperial past By exploring controversies over the veracity of the Black Legend the location of Christopher Columbus's mortal remains and the survival of indigenous cultures Christopher Schmidt-Nowara's richly documented study shows how history became implicated in the struggles over empire It also considers how these approaches to the past whether intended to defend or to criticize colonial rule called into being new postcolonial histories of empire and of nations The Cambridge Modern History John Emerich Edward Dalberg Acton Baron Acton, Sir Adolphus William Ward, George Walter Prothero, Sir Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, 1907 The Cambridge Modern History is a comprehensive modern history of the world beginning with the 15th century age of Discovery published by the Cambridge University Press in the United Kingdom and also in the United States The Lordship of Galloway Richard D. Oram, 2001-02-19 In viewing Galloway from the wider context of the northern British mainland Irish Sea and wider Hebridean zone it has been possible to explore the dynamics of state building dynastic interactions and the close inter relationships of the territories connected by the western seaways which most traditional national histories obscure From this wider perspective the development of the lordship of Galloway can be considered in the context of the spreading power and regional rivalries of English Irish and Scottish kings and a reassessment of the emergence of the unitary lordship controlled by Fergus of Galloway and his family Traditional interpretations of the relationship of Fergus and his successors with the kings of England and Scotland are challenged and new light is thrown on the beginnings of the processes of progressive domination of Galloway by and integration into the kingdom of the Scots The end of the autonomous lordship in the 1230s is projected against the backdrop of the aggressive state building activities of King Alexander II and the transformation of its rulers from independently minded princes and warlords into Anglo Scottish barons
