Brennan, 2007-01-01 All phases of our social life depend on authority without it families schools corporations churches and civil governments would cease to exist and human life with them Civilizing Authority explores the essential commonalities of authority across the spectrum of human living it also probes the risk that authoritarian abuse will arrive to compensate for the elusiveness of genuine authority in a post Christian materialist world Byzantine Intersectionality Roland Betancourt, 2020-10-06 A fascinating history of marginalized identities in the medieval world While the term intersectionality was coined in 1989 the existence of marginalized identities extends back over millennia Byzantine Intersectionality reveals the fascinating little examined conversations in medieval thought and visual culture around sexual and reproductive consent bullying and slut shaming homosocial and homoerotic relationships trans and nonbinary gender identities and the depiction of racialized minorities Roland Betancourt explores these issues in the context of the Byzantine Empire using sources from late antiquity and early Christianity up to the early modern period Highlighting nuanced and strikingly modern approaches by medieval writers philosophers theologians and doctors Betancourt offers a new history of gender sexuality and race Betancourt weaves together art literature and an impressive array of texts to investigate depictions of sexual consent in images of the Virgin Mary tactics of sexual shaming in the story of Empress Theodora narratives of transgender monks portrayals of same gender desire in images of the Doubting Thomas and stereotypes of gender and ethnicity in representations of the Ethiopian Eunuch He also gathers evidence from medical manuals detailing everything from surgical practices for late terminations of pregnancy to save a mother's life to a host of procedures used to affirm a person's gender.
